

Mrs. Jim Fender was honored Friday night with a stark shower at the Methodist Church by Mrs. Charles Crawford and Mrs.
Fender. Among games played was one of making baby layed out of a napkin and pin. Another was taking the name, "jackpot," and seeing how many names could be made from it.
Word scramble proved to be a lot of fun.
Refreshments were enjoyed.

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society met March 27, at 7:30 P. M. in the church. Mrs. George Stevens had charge of the program, her topic was, "We True Disciples". Members sang the hymn, "He Arose".
Prayer was led by Mrs. Wallace Levens and business conducted by Mrs. J. L. Bryant. Present: Mrs.
David Strader, Mrs. Roy Carver, Wallace Stevens, Mrs. Em-met Sorrells, Mrs. J. L. Bryant, Mrs. Charles Stevens, Mrs. Herman Fender.

Every man's work shall be made manifest; for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is." (I Corth. 3:13) This was Pastor Perry's sermon text Sunday a.m. on the subject, "God's Judgment On Our Stewardship".
Would that every church member could have heard and appreciated this challenging message!

It's apparent that team captains Nasir ibn Muhammad (left) and Muhammad al-Muhammad are baseball enthusiasts. They're used to working together on the job and it's easy for them to put their team work to use in a ball game. Adeneze Nasir and Muhammad, who hail from Smallland, are Arabian American Oil Company employees in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia. Almost 21,000 ARAMCO employees of more than ten nationalities work together developing Saudi Arabia's vast oil resources.

Approximately 400 persons of the community called between 4 and 6 P. M. last Sunday afternoon when the women of the State Street Methodist Church held open house to honor new members of the church and to permit friends to inspect the new educational building.

Arrangements of spring flowers and potted plants were used throughout the entire building.
The tea table was covered with an imported cut work cloth and was centered with an arrangement of snapdragons, candytuft and freezias. Crystal holders with yellow lighted candles were also used on the table.

Colorful sandwiches, cookies, mints, and nuts were served. Mrs.
H. W. Sanders, Mrs. Charles Mer-tle and Miss Louise Simmons presided at the punch bowl during the afternoon. Mrs. L. C. Jumper served as chairman for the affair.

W.M.U. on Tuesday evening, April 9. This was a belated March meeting, so the program on community mission was given by Mrs. R.
E. Truesdell. Using the topic,
"Make Me a Channel of Blessing", she explained the real meaning of community missions work. The hostess served a ice course to the following guests: Miss Alice Turner, Mesdames Ralph Truesdell, E.
H. Snypes, James Moore, and Howard Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard K. Weeks have just returned from a delicious week in St. Petersburg, Fla., where they visited both their fathers. The older Mr. Weeks is eighty-four years young, while Mr. McKinn (Mrs. Weeks' father) is ninety-three. Twelve members of the McKinn family gathered in the father's home during these days for a happy reunion.

Let electricity take over the job. Your automatic electric range cooks without watching—leaves you free to play with the kids or attend a meeting.

All over the house, electricity is ready to help at the flip of a switch; give you time for other things. And whether it's washing the dishes, doing the laundry or cleaning a rug, electric servants do the job in half the time.

Electricity works for so low a price that it's today's biggest bargain. And your electric company is constantly working to keep it that way.

SHOPE CREEK
By Mrs. Thelma Buckner
Rt. 2 — Asheville, N. C.

(Thursday, April 5)
Members of Mrs. Anna Gregg's family met at her home on Shope Creek Sunday for dinner and the annual Easter egg hunt in the afternoon. Rev. and Mrs. A. D.
Smith were guests. There were 17 present. Mr. and Mrs. L. H.
Cordell of Skyland visited in the afternoon.

I was called out of bed early Sunday to answer the phone and all I heard was, "April fool!" Mrs. Clinton Gregg has been stricken with rheumatic fever and is confined to bed for an indefinite period.

Miss Elizabeth Waite had as her luncheon guests on Sunday, Mrs.
Hassie Wade of Black Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Lee and Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Miller of Asheville; and Mr. and Mrs. W. M.
Pate of Ridgecrest. This must have been a most congenial group, and Miss Waite must have been an ideal hostess because two different people said of the occasion, "Oo-oo, we had the BEST time!
And it was just hard to leave!"

My daughter and family, (the Fred J. Moody's of Detroit) were unable to get home for Easter, but called Saturday saying they plan to be home in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gregg and son Keith of Jones Cove visited with us Thursday night.

Mrs. M. A. Gregg and Mrs. Thelma Buckner spent most of last week visiting: Monday night in Black Mt. with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ingle; Tuesday night in Swannanoa with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nichols; Wednesday morning with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Robinson; Friday night in Jones Cove with Mr. and Mrs.
Tom Creaman. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fuller of Singing Water to see their new baby daughter.

Miss Jaunita Gragg is back home after two weeks with the O'Bar family of Bull Mtn. road.
She, Linden Mercer and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gragg motored to Cherokee Saturday evening.

Mrs. Anna Gregg filled an appointment Monday morning with an eye specialist for new glasses.
