

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB HAS MEETING

The Black Mountain Home Demonstration club held its monthly meeting in the yard at the home of Mrs. W. T. Miller Monday afternoon, May 28, with 22 members and one visitor present. Mrs. Mary Alshire gave a most helpful devotional. Her topic was "The Immediacy of Things—immediacy of time, of work, of love, and worship." She read verses from the 8th chapter of Romans.

During the business session an offering was taken for the cancer fund. It was also voted to help with the Bible teacher fund. The president, Mrs. Samuel Morris, ask each member to bring a gift of money to the June meeting.

The H. D. agent, Mrs. Mamie Sue Evans, gave a demonstration and informative talk on furniture refinishing at home. She told how to select furniture for refinishing, cleaning and removing old finish.

Berea Baptist held a baptismal service at the First Baptist church in Swannanoa Sunday. Those who received baptism were Mr. and Mrs. "Pat" Banks and Miss Carolyn Rice.

Wilbur G. Creaman has completed a week's leave at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Creaman and returned to his base at Norfolk.

Claude Phillips, husband of Mrs. Elaine Allman Phillips has recently been discharged from the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gregg were guests at a chicken fry given by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fuller Tuesday night at their home at Singing Water.

On May 20 Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shope and Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Gregg made a trip to Georgia to see their grandfather, L. C. Duvall who is sick.

Some time ago I found a cocoon on a small tree limb. I broke it off and brought it to the house. One evening this week a big moth emerged from it, its colors were woven into a beautiful pattern of black, white, red and gray. One sees so many beautiful things in the country.

Mrs. Anna Gregg has been nursing a swollen, painful leg for several days. She has about decided that she has been slightly bitten by some kind of poisonous snake. She was down among the tall weeds and grass and there were small marks on her ankle like the pricks of a needle. She has been bitten once several years ago, and she said this was much the same.

Troy Gregg observed his birthday on May 23.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Crist and sons Jim and Teddy and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ingle Jr., motored out on the Parkway after church services Sunday morning stopping at Crabtree Meadows for a picnic lunch. Then going on to Morganton, Blowing Rock, Lenoir and returning through Marion and home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fuller and children visited with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Reynolds of Merrimon ave., Asheville, on Saturday night and enjoyed television.

We had a refreshing shower of rain last week which relieved the two weeks' dry spell, it has been cool since.

Daily Vacation Bible school will begin at Berea Baptist church on June 4, registration day will be on Friday 1st.

SOUTHLAND MEN

They came, these Southland Men. From places near and far. To Montreat in the wooded hills, And found a Guiding Star.

They saw, these Southland Men, How manifest His way. To inspire the willing hearts of them. Who would serve Him every day.

They learned, these Southland Men, From their own fellowman. How Christ may be a partner in Each thought, and move, and plan.

Return, ye Southland Men, To your own church and sod;

District 1 of the North Carolina State Nurses association will meet here. Tell them there, what you learned And witness for your God. —Vernon W. Johnson. (Men's) Conference, Montreat, July 1951).
