 way in which such a pool can be formed, they believe, is by inviting every kindred soul in the community to join them. The pool thus formed is placid, not stagnant.

There is no initiation fee, no fine for absence, no requirement of 100% attendance. The only test as to fitness to associate with the group is the willingness, not the ability, to sing any of the four parts that together make up Sweet Adeline. Tenor, lead, bary or bass, it makes no difference.

We need you. You need us. This Thursday is the night. The little building next to the Baptist church is the place.
