OWEN WARHORSES—

From Page 1
 Haynes, letterman, was lost when his family moved to Detroit.
 Up from the junior varsity for their first try are some boys who are being counted on to help during the coming campaign. These include—ends, David Pruitt and Robert Hughes; tackle, Billy Wimbler; guards, Albert Davis, Cecil Davis, and Wayne Morrow.
 Although there are 15 lettermen returning, sorely missed will be Dan Wilson, center; Earl Pruitt, fullback; Kenny Martin, defensive end; Vance Davis, tackle; Gene Burke, tackle, and Leslie Haynes, tackle.
 The Hendersonville encounter will be the first of a rugged schedule, practically the same as last year. Following the Bearcats will come Asheville High, Erwin, Reynolds, Enka, North Buncombe, Asheville School, Brevard, and Waynesville. If there is any tougher slate than this in WNC, it hasn't been listed.
 But the boys are optimistic and may pull some surprises along the way as they did last year. They had just started to hit their stride against Waynesville and will attempt to take up Friday night day.

BROAD RIVER

By Mrs. M. M. Elliott
 Mrs. Meldona Bjorklund of Washington, D. C., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Dicy Smith, and family on upper Cedar Creek.
 My sister-in-law, Mrs. Andy Elliott and granddaughter, JoAnn, of Morganton and Mrs. Elliott's son, Burley Elliott and his wife and children, Burley Jr. and Diane, of Bayonne, N. J., and Mrs. Elliott's daughter, Mrs. Marie Beach and children, Alon, Ronnie, Wanda, and Timothy of Morganton visited us last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Crenshaw of Forest City spent the week end at their place on upper Cedar Creek.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bob Edmondson and sons who spent a 10 day vacation at their cabin on Broad River returned to their home in Starke, Fla., last Tuesday. Mr. Edmondson is connected with the new hospital in Starke.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turnipseed and daughter visited us last Friday to take up Friday night day.

Mrs. Nancy Nelson of this community and Mrs. Nelson's great nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Elliot and his sister, Helen Elliot of Chesnee, S. C., visited Mrs. Nelson's sister, Mrs. Myra Ownbey, who is all at her home near Skyland, last Saturday.

 Rev. and Mrs. Lee Goins of Winston Salem, a former pastor of Clear Branch Church, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Morris and daughters.
 Grady, Stanley, and Kenneth Elliot, who have been visiting their father and his wife Mr. and Mrs. Bynum Elliot and daughter Peggy, returned to their homes in Oklahoma this week.
 Yewitt Elliott, Dean Ledbetter, Lawrence and Pressley Nelson, went on a camping trip on Bald Mountain recently.
 There will be a decoration at the old Mt. Pleasant Church Cemetery on Stone Mountain next Sunday, Sept. 2.
 The memorial service will be held at the Davis Town Free Will Baptist Church in the Crooked Creek section next Saturday, Sept. 1.
 The revival meeting will start at Stone Mountain Baptist Church next Sunday night, Sept. 2. Rev. Fred Robinson will be the visiting minister.
 The memorial service will be held at Nesbit's Chapel on Flat Creek next Sunday, Sept. 2.
 We, the Broad River folks are indeed sorry to know that Mr. Robert Daugherty, our mail carrier is ill. We miss him badly and sincerely hope that he will soon be well. Besides delivering our mail all these years he has done so many chores for us along the way. I'm afraid we have been thoughtless, taken him for granted, have been imposing on him, and have failed to appreciate what he has been doing for us all through the years.
 We want to thank Mrs. Ballard for the good job she is doing in delivering our mail in Mr. Daugherty's absence.
 The memorial service will be held at Stone Mountain Sunday, Sept. 9.

LIONS ENTERTAINED BY CHICAGO SINGER

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Brande of Chicago have been guests of Mrs. Pearl Perkins of Ridgecrest and Mrs. Mary E. Aleshire of Oak Knoll.
 Mrs. Brande, lyric soprano, is one of Chicago's best known singers. She and Mrs. Perkins provided a well received program for the Lions club dinner at Christmount last Thursday evening.
 As she has done on former visits, Mrs. Brande gave a program for the patients at the V.A. hospital.
 On Sunday, Aug. 25, she sang a solo, "How Beautiful Upon the Mountain" at the Methodist church of Black Mountain.
 Mr. and Mrs. Brande visited many of the beauty spots and historic sites of this area and were so pleased that they expressed a desire to return for a longer season.

HOME FROM ILLINOIS
 Mrs. W. H. Lindsey and her two sisters, Mrs. Anna Hensley of Marion and Mrs. Mae Dillard of Sylva, returned last Sunday from a week's visit with relatives in Rockford, Ill.

A TRIBUTE
 As we've often heard—there is nothing new—
 "Nothing new under the sun"
 And so, as August rolls around, The partings have begun.
 On your wide front porch
 Where we often dine—
 Admiring the mimosa, the rhododendron, the pines,
 Discussing religion, our lineage,
 our travels—
 As memory of the past winter slowly unravels—

Then down to the cool, green brook—
 To the green moss carpet—
 The enchanting nook—
 Where the moments fleet—
 Then au revoir—
 Till again we meet!
 Helen Hollister Swan
 (Mrs. Hugh Swan)
 New Bern.

This tribute to your charming and her daughter was composed and appreciation of the many lateeons and teas which Mrs. Sharp attended on "the wide front porch" and on "the green moss carpet" and the "gurgling brook."
