but he was shoved out of bounds by Elliott. On the next play Wright, who seems to be heading for his best year, went through a wagon-size hole in the center of the line and danced 44 yards unmolested.

Bright spot in the backfield, which still has not reached its peak was the punting of Sophomore Joe Robinson who time after time drove the Bearcat back with long spirals.

He zoomed the ball far over the heads of the double safety on his first kick for more than 60 yards and completed the evening with an average of 40 yards with eight tries. A kick out of bounds on the nine and one that rolled over the goal cut down his average.

The defense was bolstered this week by the return of Leslie Haynes, veteran lineman, whose parents moved to Detroit. He has two more years to go and will be of great value at the tackle slot.

The boys came through the first game in good condition and should be ready for the Maroon-Devils Friday.

Black Mountain, Fairview Will Continue Series

Black Mountain split with Fairview over the week-end in the Buncombe County league playoff.

At Fairview Saturday Black Mountain scored once in the eighth frame to win over the home team, 2 to 1. Harold Plemmons walked, stole second, went to third on a sacrifice, and romped home with the winning run when Bartlett singled. They took the lead in the first inning when Charlie Davis hit a home run but Fairview tied it up in the seventh.

Owenby and Heatherly duled down to the last wire, striking out eight and seven men respectively. Leading hitters were R. Plemmons and Kenny Wood with two out of four.

Fairview jumped on Robert Plemmons for three big runs in the first inning at the Beacon field Sunday and was never headed, winning the decision, 10 to 6.

Black Mountain went ahead in the fifth inning but the winners pushed over single runs in the seventh and ninth and four in the eighth to knot the playoff at a game each.

In the second game of a scheduled doubleheader the teams battled to a 5-all tie. The game was halted by darkness.

The two teams will play at Fairview Sunday at 1:30. The series will be decided on a 3 out of 5 basis.
