BROAD RIVER

By Mrs. M. M. Elliott

Mr. and Mrs. John McKaskell and Buddy Wilks of West Monroe, La., are taking a few weeks' vacation at their summer cabin on Upper Cedar Creek. Their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis of Spindale, visited them recently.

Mrs. Hilda Ballard and daughter Scottie and Susan Craig of Black Mountain visited Mrs. Boyd Elliott recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turnipseed, who have been taking their vacation at their cabin on Broad River, have returned to their home in Columbia, S. C. Mr. Turnipseed is an employee of the post office in Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Wilson of Tennessee visited Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Ownbey and family in this community last week.

Mrs. Mary Easter, Mrs. Tina White and John Wilson of St. Petersburg, Fla., guests of Miss Pinholster and Mrs. Barnes, returned to their homes last week.

Paul Kirby of Kirby's Corner is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Marlowe and children near Marion.

We attended the memorial service at Nesbitt Chapel Sept. 2nd where I attended church back in my girlhood. I met many old friends and acquaintances I haven't seen for many years. The Rev. Wilson Nesbitt of Gastonia delivered the message at the morning service. The cemetery was beautifully decorated with flowers and a wonderful dinner was served to everyone at noon.

The memorial service was conducted at Stone Mountain church last Sunday. We had a good turnout both around home and from faraway places. The Rev. Cecil Smith, our pastor, delivered the message at the morning service. We had plenty of flowers for the cemetery and an abundance of food for everyone. The Rev.

Franklin Justice, our former pastor, delivered the message in the afternoon. We had several groups of fine singers of other churches, among them the Sunlight Girls Trio, Station WBRM of Marion, Mrs. Joe Frisbee, Myrtle and Lucille Huffman Trio, and Joe Frisbee, radio announcer of Marion, a quartet from Morganton, Andy Elliott, Paul Hawkins, Mrs. Sion Heart and son Lloyd and Miss Jeanette Gray, the Fairview church quartet of Nebo, Earnest Harklerode, Azela Harklerode, Cecil Frisbee, Howard Duncan and Bobby Propst, and a trio from Cherry Springs church, Ray Davis, Floyd and Harold Vess.

We are glad to hear Robert Gaugherty, our mail carrier, is getting better. We hope he'll soon be well.

Mrs. Dora Nanney, who has been ill, is up and getting around again.

Mrs. Nancy Nelson of this community who has been very sick is much better.

Little Faye Smith, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Cecil Smith, was very sick last week but is much better.

REFLECTIONS

From Page 1

—R—

This story was told in Sunday school.

Infuriated when a woman in the community concluded that he drank because he left his wheelbarrow parked outside a saloon several nights in a row, the carpenter changed the subject of conversation. He moved the wheelbarrow down and parked it on the sidewalk in front of the lady's house.

—R—

Did you notice how often the announcer mentioned the names of Shope, Wade, and Hampton in the Asheville High-Owen game last week? Watch these boys as the season progresses.

—R—

A young bride of three months complained to her relatives about her husband's continued drinking habits.

"If you knew he drank, why did you marry him?" she was asked.

"I didn't know he drank until one night he came home sober."

bolt University in East Berlin, also several at the Free University in West Berlin. Berlin is the only place that I want to return to in Europe. Aside from the two months which I spent in Bonn and Berlin, and the two semesters in Goettingen, somewhat more than a month was devoted to travel in France, Austria, Switzerland, Italy, Belgium and Holland. Germany seems to be the most destroyed and best recovered country in Europe. For "agreeableness" I would give the Dutch or the Belgians top honors.

David was the first exchange student under a program sponsored by student government agencies at Goettingen and U.N.C. This year UNC is sending two students to Goettingen and receiving two German students in return. The purpose of the program is to acquaint the students in the two countries of each others' problems.

Jaycees Clear More Area For Picnic Ground

The Black Mountain Junior Chamber of Commerce members have been eagerly at work completing one more of their finer Carolina projects.

Two work parties were held, at which time the area beyond the large barbeque pit was cleared of trash and brush and 200 pounds of sodium chloride spread. They hope to have gravel spread on the area.

This extension has given the picnic grounds more space for pits and tables.

The two shuffle board courts and the new equipment are in use. The areas were refinished with a new foundation of cement and the proper forms for playing were painted on the two surfaces.

The Jaycees now lack only one more phase to complete a very extensive project which is making Black Mountain a Finer Carolina town for 1956.
