April the 9th 1840. From M. S. Dear bet I take the opportunity this evening to drop you a fiew lines to let you know about matters and things in general, the day we left home it rained on us from Asheville to Mr. Moors and you may guess we was pretty wet, but Mr. Moor was very kind and soon had us dryed the next day we landed safe and Monday morning I went to the school house accompanied by Mr. Lee Gash. I soon set things bout and gave the children their lessons and went on finely that week. friday they moved to their new house and we just live in splendor myself and Mary Younge hase a large room upstairs that we keep in order you may know,

FINER FARMS WINNERS!

In the annual Finer Farms contest sponsored by CP&L Co. in its service area, these communities were judged "Carolina's Finest"-based on Soil and Water conservation practices. Whether or not your community won a cash price it most certainly was not a loser, because conservation practices pay their own way and earn a profit. So, to every individual or community entered in the contest, our hearty congratulations.
