

Mr. and Mrs. Ambassador!

The 1956 CARE Food Crusade is now underway to distribute 5 million packages of United States farm surplus to the hungry in other countries as personal gifts from Americans.

That program brings to mind the recent "people-to-people" White House conference. CARE officials were among the American leaders in many fields whom President Eisenhower urged to help devise "thousands of methods by which people can gradually learn a bit more of each other," in order to help build "enduring peace" throughout the world.

To the President's words we therefore add this thought: You can "do it yourself." Through CARE, Mr. and Mrs. America can be Mr. and Mrs. Ambassador of peace. To hungry people, food means friendship. When Guest Editorial

World Community Day 1956

The modern world is a community whose citizens are the total human family. The idea of a community of nations is almost as familiar to this generation as is a local community of individual citizens. Yet, it is the individual who molds history and whose destinies spell the world's welfare. For World Community Day 1956 to emphasize HUMAN RIGHTS is a significant milestone in the united efforts of Christian people.

It is proper for certain days to be set apart as honored memorials in a nation's history, or the world's history. Although World Community Day is not of as long standing in habitual observance as other special days—such as Thanksgiving Day—it carries profound meaning. Everyone is obligated, as that food arrives under CARE's unique service—in a carton labelled "CARE, U.S.A.," with the name and address of a specific donor—it speaks right to the hearts of the recipients to tell them they can trust Americans and America.

Every $1 donated puts your name and address on a 22-lb. CARE Food Crusade package, to help feed four persons for a month. The foods were released free by the Government. But contributions must cover CARE's costs of packing and completing delivery to the needy in 19 critical areas of Europe, Asia, Latin America and the Middle East. Your own person-to-person diplomacy begins as soon as you mail $1, or $10, or as much as you can afford, to: CARE Food Crusade, 660 First Avenue, New York 16, N. Y., or the nearest CARE office.

a citizen of the world, to think in terms of world-community, and of the basic human rights that must ultimately belong to every person.

There is a backward look from other special days that commemorate past glories. World Community Day points to the future. It is a challenge to gather up the treasures of the Christian heritage. HUMAN RIGHTS stand among the most precious of those treasures—divine gifts to the whole human family. It is an exhilarating experience to participate, with other disciples of Christ around the globe, in pressing on toward a great goal for humanity. May November second be a vital day!

WATCHING...They aren't saying much about it for publication at this time, but the North Carolina State Bar is said to be quite alarmed at the growth of unauthorized practice of law on the part of organizations, corporations, and individuals.

Don't be surprised if some indictments are forthcoming, for the law pertaining to the practice of law without proper authority is specifically vested in the Council of the North Carolina State Bar. It may "investigate and bring action against persons charged with violations" of the act.

If your association is giving legal opinions, better be careful, unless you have an attorney doing the giving. If you, an individual, handle deeds preparations, mortgages, wills, etc., etc., chances are you may be violating the law.

Corporations also become careless at times. If in doubt, you should consult an attorney... and perhaps save yourself some embarrassment. GOOD... The Democratic dinner we had here last Saturday night to raise money for the hell-for-leather days of the 1956 campaign did that...and more. It brought back to

Student Council Will Have Charge Of PTA Program

The Student Council will have charge of the program at the regular monthly meeting of the Owen High school PTA at the school on Thursday evening, Nov. 1. Mrs. Annie McMahon, president, will preside.

This program should prove interesting to all friends of the school. The heads of all clubs will be introduced and each will explain his or her duties and the purpose of the club.

Prior to the meeting a spaghetti supper will be served in the cafeteria. The cost will be 65 cents. Mrs. McMahon says that each person will be entitled to all the spaghetti he can eat.

Presbyterian Women To Meet Tuesday, Oct. 30

The Women of the Church of the Black Mountain Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday, Oct. 30, at 3:00 p.m. at the church. This is the season of Church Extension in the Presbyterian Church U.S., and all over the southland Presbyterians are giving generously of their money and prayers in order that the Department of Church Extension may carry on its work. Since 1945 the Department of Church Extension has fostered the organization of 569 new churches with a total of 92,615 members in these newly organized churches.

Through Home Missions, evangelism, Negro work, Christian relations, and radio and television church extension is carried on. On Tuesday a review will be given of the Church Extension study book, "Bright Future."

MRS. J. L. POTTER AUXILIARY HOSTESS

Waycaster McFee American Legion Auxiliary met Monday night, Oct. 15, at the home of Mrs. J. L. Potter, Briarbrook road. Mrs. J. I. Cook, Sr., served as co-hostess. Mrs. A. R. Rudisill, president, presided during the meeting.

The annual Armistic Day covered dish supper to be held by the Legion and Auxiliary was announced for Friday night, Nov. 9, in the Legion hall. It was also decided to assist other local organizations in the "get out the vote" campaign by telephoning the D's and E's in the phone directory. Plans to help in the United Appeal drive were made. Members voted to sponsor Mrs. June Glenn's girl scout troop again this year and to give them a cash donation.

Members were asked to bring gifts to the November meeting for the Christmas gift shop for families of patients at Oteen and Swannanoa VA hospitals. An offering was taken to buy school supplies for a Korean Orphanage. Mrs. Clarence Joyner is in charge of this project. Following the meeting the hostesses served refreshments to the following: Mrs. C. M. Ledbetter, Mrs. Joe Bullock, Mrs. M. E. Head, Mrs. Rudisill, Mrs. M. P. Dinwiddie, Mrs. Clara Snyder, Mrs. C. R. chiefly responsible for financing FDR's third-term campaigning in 1940. At one time, the Democratic National Committee was in debt to Dick Reynolds a cool $700,000. No wonder they made him treasurer of the party. He had become that already —unofficially. No wonder Franklin D. Roosevelt always had a tender place in his heart for Dick Reynolds, the man who keynoted the roast beef affair (at $25 per) here. And, for a time, it looked as if Reynolds would win a matter of a few years be Governor of North Carolina. But then he decided to hit the road. Reynolds, Jr., the son of the founder of Reynolds Tobacco Co., has done well despite the fact that he was born with a silver spoon in his mouth. Wealth beginnings seldom lead to success. Dick Reynolds is a success because he is sincere, down-to-earth, honest, and without guile. I read the other day about a survey that had been made of a thousand successful men to determine how they got their start in life. It seems that the thousand had made the world a better place in which to

Of the thousand, 300 started as farmers' sons. Two hundred started as messenger boys. One hundred began as printers' apprentices. One hundred started working in factories. Fifty began at the bottom of railroad work. Fifty, only 50 out of the thousand, had well-to-do parents to give them a start. In fact, many great men owe their distinguished position in life to the fact that as children they lacked the advantages other people had. When pamp-
