At the Church
 Pastor Perry's message Sunday morning on "Why Our World is Sick" had some very graphic statements and gave much food for thought. The Scriptural background was Matthew 6:20-21, 25-34 and John 4:11-21.
 G. A. Moore, "Black Monarch" dah-dah-dah, was the altar. These were as directed by Mrs. E. Y. Moore and given by Mrs. E. Y. Moore and were beautifully arranged for the church by her.
 In the evening an informal song service was greatly enjoyed. Pre-service the message on "The Kingdom Within."

 W. M. S.
 The November meeting of Women's Missionary society was held at the home of Mrs. Joe Hollifield on the afternoon, Nov. 6. In the absence of the president, Mrs. R. Charles Jolley presided. Mrs. R. Charles Jolley and Mrs. Erbert Huggins presented a program explaining the new "Aims for Advancement" and Mrs. Jolley used charts to develop the meaning of W. M. S. fundamentals. Those present were: Mrs. W. C. Reems, Mrs. G. Chapin, Mrs. S. C. Gill, Mrs. S. Meeks, Mrs. Charles Jolley, Mrs. Edith Van Duzer, Mrs. R. E. Truesdell, Mrs. Hollifield and Mrs. J. G. A.
 Barbara Bradley, Delores Melton, Ann Moore, Sue Smith, and Jean Tipton came to the home of their counselor, Mrs. E. F. Hardin for the regular meeting of Intermediate Girls' Auxiliary on Monday afternoon, Nov. 12. Following the usual order, refreshments were served first. Sue Smith presided over the business session, and by common consent of the group voted to allow them to change places—Sue becoming president and Ann Carr vice-president. Delores Melton had charge of the program which was a delightful little play, entitled "A Look at Yesterday" in which all the girls took part.
 G. A.
 For the first time since September Mrs. Lillian Gallomore had her junior girls meet with her. Their joy was great because their beloved counselor had sufficiently recovered from her long illness to have another G. A. meeting. Delicious refreshments preceded a session attended by every one of the seven members enrolled. Deanna Belcher led a two-fold program "How Rich Are You?" and "Thanksgiving Time Is Here." Mrs. R. E. Truesdell was a visitor. Those attending were Martha Alton, Deanna Belcher, Marie McMahan, Janice Peek, Glenda Lakey, Linda Bradley, and Sandra Wright. Mrs. Gallomore tenderly led the closing prayer and Mrs. Truesdell thanked the girls home.
 Here and There
 Pastor Perry and E. F. Hardin are attending the Baptist State convention meeting in Winston-Salem.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. (Johnny) Styles, Billy and Bobbie spent last week with Mrs. Styles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stepp. On Monday Mrs. Stepp accompanied them to Winston-Salem for a few days' visit in their new home there.
 Mrs. G. C. Chopin and Mrs. Cecil Perry left Wednesday for a visit of several days in Newport News, Va.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pate are enjoying a vacation in Florida.
 Jimmie Keels of Sumter, S. C., and North Greenville Junior college, Greenville, S. C., spent the week-end with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Jackson.
 Seaman William Creasman of U. S. S. Ashland spent the week-end with his mother before starting on another voyage to eastern waters.
 The Rev. Charles Jolley and Mrs. Jolley were called to Durham on Saturday because of the death of the Rev. Jack Wilder's mother. Judge Cora Bell Ives of Smithfield visited Mrs. Pearl Perkins over the week-end.
 Mrs. Mayme Gough returned Tuesday from a two weeks' visit in Chattanooga, Tenn., with her friend, Miss Ruby Robinson.
 Our latest newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. James McMahan have taken residence in an apartment in the Miller Jackson home.
 Guests last week-end in the E. F. Hardin home were Mrs. Hardin's sister, Mrs. H. C. Hendrix of Columbia, S. C., with the latter's daughter and grandson, Mrs. June H. Ward and little Tommy, also of Columbia. Unfortunately, Tommy was sick while here, keeping his mother and grandmother closely confined to the house during their stay.
 Dr. Hight C Moore is slowly gaining strength in his home. A bad fall on Sunday frightened his family but seemed to do no permanent damage. It is good to see his cheery smile, and visitors who see him for a few minutes at a time have their hearts warmed and their spirits lifted by his customary gracious greeting and conversation.
