It's that new V8 in the '57 Chevrolet. It's as quiet as a contented cat and as smooth as cream . . . and it's cat-quick in response when you call for action!

No household tabby sitting in a sunny window ever purred more softly than Chevy's new V8 engine. It's so kitten-quiet and cream-smooth that you can scarcely even tell when it's idling.

But when you nudge the accelerator, you know it's there, all right! Its right-now response keeps

I went down to the club house and enjoyed the Thanksgiving banquet with the Black Mountain Garden club Friday night. Minnie couldn't go for she was entertaining herself. I went partly to let the folks know that I hadn't "kicked the bucket" yet. Everyone was surprised when I told them that I had been back at work for two weeks. I just can't write enough to keep this column up to date. The club had the delicious turkey dinner with all the fixings that we generally do, but I still feel very puny, and couldn't do the meal ample justice.

Minnie had the W.M.U. circle here Friday night. I couldn't say what kind of a program they had, for I had to work the 3rd shift later that night and went to bed to rest but they seemed to have a very good time. Those present besides Minnie were: Nell McAfee, Minnie Shook, Violet McFee, Mae Burnette, Coleen Blankenship, George Hampton, Pauline Tucker, Francis Shook, Jewel Byrd, Rosie Marler, Barbara Marler, Pearl Burnette, Brenda Blankenship, and David Shook Jr. The meeting had a dual purpose. Each of the ladies brought Minnie a lovely household gift. Mae Burnette spent the night with us.

A good time to visit us is between 4:00 and 6:00 o'clock p.m. on week days. Saturday afternoons we might be out running around, but Saturday nights we

You don't have that "Dressed Up" feeling unless you visit your Barber regularly. Don't neglect that part of your appearance.

A certain Black Mountain citizen of unusual culinary ability was baking a turkey recently. On account of the size of the bird his roaster lid would not fit snugly in its groove. He rose to the occasion by laying a cinder block on the lid, and thereby holding it firmly in place. (Must have had a big oven to accommodate such a fowl, and a cinder block too). I asked the gentleman which was the best in such a case—shale, cinder, or concrete, he said that nothing equalled a cinder block, for the porous surface gave a non-skid quality that was highly essential.

I have often wondered what a bald-headed woman looked like, now I know. I was passing a store window the other day that sells ladies' clothing, the owner and an assistant were dressing the show window. The mannequin on which they were working was devoid of any hair. I was fascinated by the bald figure. I looked at the tresses and she had bricked. Miss Isobel Wicker tells me that they have been having lots of company lately. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Woodberry of Bainbridge, Ga., spent an afternoon with her, Mrs. Elizabeth Witherspoon Alford of Kissimmee, Fla., made a surprise visit and stayed several days. Mrs. Lavinia Smith of Charlotte and Mrs. Katherine Strozier of Rock Hill spent the week-end and had a house party with four other Rock Hill people in Mrs. Kinard's summer home. Mrs. Kinard is in Glendale, Calif. She will sail for Hawaii on Nov. 9, where she plans to stay until next June.

Minnie was told sick to go to church this Sunday, in fact, she has been sick for several days. Fred Shook and his family came by to see her after services. Mrs. W. T. Shook and Coleen Blankenship were called away from services on account of sickness in their family.

Our church has been having a number of called business meetings lately. Maybe I will have something to tell you soon.

Well, to get on a little more with Life in a Hospital. As I told you before I have been back at work for over two weeks, trying to convalesce on the 3rd shift in the card room, which is a good trick if you can do it. There is nothing really serious wrong with me, we were merely finding out if there was. All the X-rays, fluoroscopes, tests, etc., revealed the fact that I was just as beautiful inside as I am outside.

(Four hours later Sunday afternoon.) I see that I am not going to get on with the story this week. Here it is getting along toward time to go to work, and the dead line will be Monday noon. Folks started coming in to see Minnie, and I went to bed. I will list her company, they were: Nell McAfee, Rosie Marler, Mae Burnette, the Jim McFees, the Clyde Grays, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow An-

number of East Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Will Burnette, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Van Court, and Mrs. Connie Williams of Asheville.

(Monday morning — Minnie is much better.)
