proven and development, and held intense interest straight through to the climax. The evening service was given over to viewing "The Battleground of Europe" — Billy Graham's latest picture of his evangelistic campaign on that continent.

Flowers in the church were complimentary from Northwestern Bank, after their Open House in the lovely new building on Saturday evening. They were presented to the church by Mrs. J. D. Moore next day.

Members of the new S. S. class last Thursday evening at a supper L. Miller Jackson, the meal was served buffet style, and topped with dessert suggestion of Valess greatly enjoyed. To close the light for the guests sat in candle-lit room, followed by a brief but meaningful devotional led by Mr. Jackson. Those present were: Pastor and Mrs. C. M. Perry, assistant teacher, Mr. Charles Jolley, Mr. and Mrs. Jolley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tipton, Dan Turner, Mrs. Over Heels in Home Missions "in the snows of Alaska. Those present were: Barbara Bradley, Dolores Melton, Ann Moore, Faye Peek, Ann Carr Perry, Sue Smith, Jean Tipton, and little Jimmy Peek as a visitor.

Here and There
Friends of Mrs. Joe Moore sympathized with her in the loss of her brother, Robert Wayne, who died in Emergency hospital, Washington, D. C., on February 6 after a long illness. Funeral services were conducted for him in Raleigh on Friday afternoon, Feb. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. John May and little Kathy Ann from Valley Springs school spent the week-end with Mrs. May's mother, Mrs. Clarence Allison and family.

Charles Belcher, on ten-day leave from Marine Supply Base in Edenton, N. C., has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Belcher.

William Creaman, home for several days leave from the Navy, wears an unmistakable sign of approaching maturity on his upper lip.

J. D. Smith returned on Monday to Memorial Mission hospital as a patient.

After a month of basking in Florida's sunshine, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Burnett arrived at home on Tuesday of last week. Their vacation included a week's hunting in Appalachicola National Forest with a nephew, Major Ammon McClellan, after which they spent some days with a niece, Mrs. Robert Kramer in Rockledge, Fla. Another week was spent in Okeechobee in the home of Major and Mrs. Ammon McClellan, and this was followed by a visit with Mrs. Burnett's sister, Mrs. Henry St. Onge and her husband in Palmetto. A big finale they joined friends from Maryland and Delaware for fishing at Marothon. This was just another of those times when the "weaker sex" won, for our sportsman was out of the crowd in this sport. A month is a long time—it is good to see lights on again at the Burnett's!

Mr. and Mrs. Willard K. Weeks returned on Sunday from an enjoyable and profitable trip south in the interest of lining up the assembly staff for the coming season. In the 18 days they covered 3500 miles and contacted more than 20 college campuses in the states of Tenn., Ark., Okla., Texas, La., Miss., and Ala.

In reply to a query as to whether they were weary from such a whirlwind trip, Mr. Weeks cheerily replied: "Oh no! We accomplished our mission successfully and feel fine!"

Spend-the-day guests of the Elbert Hardins' on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Poteet and son Mickey, and Mrs. Moran Harbison, all of Morganton.

Through the generosity of Mrs. Irwin, the American Artist's Professional League and the North Carolina Heart association invite you to an exhibit and sale of water colors painted by the late Lieut. General S. Leroy Irwin.

Proceeds from the paintings sold will be given to the Heart fund. For this Heart fund paintings will be sold for one third of the regular price. The exhibit is being held at the art gallery in the Manor, Asheville, from Feb. 10 through March 15.
