REFLECTIONS—

requesting permission to bring a dog along, brought this reply from the motel owner:

"We have never had a dog fall asleep in bed while smoking and burn everything up. We have never had a dog spill alcoholic drinks all over the furniture and ruin it. We have never caught a dog leaving the premises with a bath towel or a pillow case in his suitcase. Sure the dog is welcome. "P. S. If you can get the dog to vouch for you, you can come too."

Some of the most interesting items never appear in the paper at all. I caught Oden Walker throwing away part of his copy this week—he said he didn't like—and salvaged it for his reading public. Here's the item that was tossed aside:

One sees strange things in a daily paper, as well as weeklies. Several weeks ago while I was looking at a picture of all these crazy bottles in the house in New York whose caps jumped off, and other unusual things, something drew my gaze across the page, and there was the likeness of our beloved skinny editor. I quickly read the item, for with all the hold-ups and such it caused me to wonder

This clipping will entitle De Turner and one guest to free admission to see "The Lady Takes a Flyer" at the Pix Theatre.
