Public Meeting To Discuss Swan. Library March 31

The Swannanoa Public Library celebrating National Library Week by offering its younger patrons a choice of over 200 new books recently received from the State library at Raleigh. Mrs. Evelyn Patton, librarian, states the books are on the shelves and she invites the young people to come in and make their selections.

Excellent books are also available for adults, both fiction and non-fiction, and a growing number of Swannanoa residents are enjoying them, she reported.
