

Miss Julia Stokes

The Women of the Montreat Presbyterian church will have their birthday party on Tuesday, May 20, in the garden of the home of Mrs. L. Nelson Bell on Assemblers drive at 3:30 p.m. A social hour will be held in the garden as soon as the party arrives. The program will be presided over by Mrs. Frank Donoho. The president, Miss Elizabeth Hoyt, will preside over the business session.

The morning worship service was held at 11 o'clock in Gaither with Dr. W. W. Boyce, pastor of Erskine Theological Seminary, in the pulpit. The Rev. Dr. Stanley Bennett presented the offering for the day. Timothy and Mark, the sons of Dr. Bennett, administered the sacrament of baptism and brought the morning message. The Cherub choir sang the anthem, "Tell me the Story of Jesus," and the Junior choir sang "O, for the Wings of a Dove." Both were very sweet and were given to honor the mothers.

Next Sunday will be the last regular service before May 26 commencement services, and afterwards most of the college students will leave for their homes. We would like to express our best wishes to the students who are graduating and leaving Montreat, and to the others we hope to see here again next year.

The Senior High Fellowship met at 5:30 p.m. in the Graham home. The Student Christian association met in Central park at 7:15 p.m. The art and publicity group met at 8 p.m.

The Montreat Discussion fellowships met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Barnhouse at 7:45 p.m.

On Friday at the chapel service at 10 o'clock, the actor, John French, will speak. He was converted at one of the Billy Graham services and is now giving his full time to telling others of his experiences. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Guy have purchased the McGregor home and will move into their new home before the first of June. Mr. and Mrs. Guy have been living in the J. R. Williams home on Assembly drive this past winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Farkas and family have moved into the Kenyon Close cottage on Louisiana road as extension for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson and family will leave in the middle of June for Bristol as Mr. Anderson has accepted the position of dean and Bible teacher of King college. They have made many friends and have played an active part in the Montreat community and will be greatly missed here. We wish for them much success in their new work there.

The many friends and patients of Dr. S. S. Cooley in Montreat and nearby communities are grieving at his passing and wish to express sympathy to the family in this great loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Kay Stuts had as guests over Mother's Day week Mrs. Stuts' mother, Mrs. Garland Seagle of Lincoln, and Mrs. Stuts' two sisters, Miss Sue Jane Seagle of Greensboro and Miss Eleanor Seagle, and her fiancé, Bobby Bolinger.

Mrs. T. S. Williamson of Danville, Va., and friend, Miss Brown of Leesville, Va., spent the week in Mrs. Williamson's summer home on Greybeard trail.

Mrs. E. C. Sherry and son, E. C. Sherry, Jr., are spending a week with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Sherry in Wytheville, Va.

Mrs. George White of Charlotte, N.C., is spending a few weeks with Miss Alice Hardie in her home on Virginia road.

Fady Moore, student in Ben Lippin school, spent the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moore.

The titles are as follows in order of their presentation: "Mixed Dates," "The Handy Man," "Business A La Mode" and "I Won't Dance." Directed and selected by Y. L. Medlin, the plays ran along a rather light, humorous vein which the audience seemed to enjoy. If their reactions and the attendance is any indication, I would say that the plays were a great success. Nevertheless, everyone in the senior English department, the cast, stage hands, and the others certainly enjoyed doing it.

The Latin club met last week, and the nominating committee, consisting of Susan Ballard, Iret Akkaynak, David Alexander, Miranda Young, Bonnie McKay, Janice Higginbotham, Joan Lemieux and Dianne Nesbitt, presented a slate of candidates for next year's officers. Of the four students nominated for each office, the following were chosen: President, Dianne Nesbitt; secretary, Emilie Alexander; and treasurer, Emese Soos. Because the constitution states that the vice-president must be a member of the Latin I class, that officer will not be decided until next year.

The sextet made an appearance last week at the Black Mountain Episcopal church at a luncheon held on the May Fellowship day.

He and his wife, who is teaching at the Swannanoa Grammar school and is choir director at the Swannanoa Presbyterian church, are now living in Ridgecrest. They have a daughter, Sue, who is a junior, and a son, Eddie, a freshman here at Owen. Mr. Smith has previously coached basketball and baseball very successfully; however, his hobby is creative writing.

Surviving are the widow, the former Miss Hattie Wheeler; five daughters, Mrs. Frona Cooper of Fairview, near Asheville, Mrs. Mary Plemmons of Pensacola, Mrs. Martha Riddle of Pensacola, and Mrs. Axie Griffin of Black Mountain; four sons, Glen of Black Mountain, Byrd H. of Pensacola, Lewis of Swannanoa, and Robert of Brunswick, Me.; two sisters, Mrs. Bes-sie Ambrose of Erwin, Tenn., and Mrs. Bertie Morrow of Marion, Ind.; a half-brother, Dedrick Coffey of Covington, Ky.; 16 grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Need Is Reported For Heavier Corn Crop This Year

Corn is a dual purpose crop. And despite the thinking of quite a few Tar Heels, "white lightning" isn't one of them.

John C. Rice, director of the N. C. Crop Improvement Association, points out that corn can be sold as a cash crop or fed to livestock. As for the latter, he feels that continued growth of the state's livestock industry is largely dependent upon the ability of North Carolina farmers to produce corn.

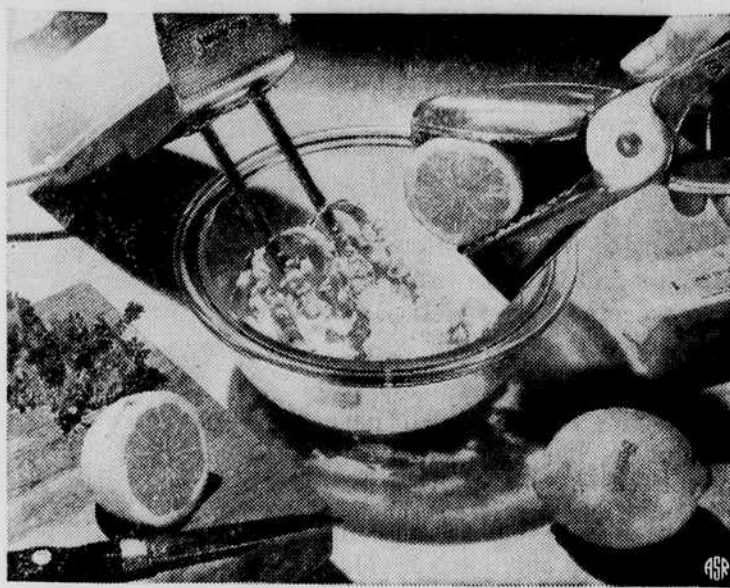

Rice points out that demand for livestock is on the increase. But the state can't expand its hog, beef cattle or poultry production on a sound basis without providing ample supply of feed. And corn is one of the best sources of livestock feed.

In urging North Carolina farmers to increase corn production in 1958, Rice emphasizes that adverse weather conditions in the fall of 1957 resulted in considerably fewer acres being planted in small grain. This acreage, plus acres normally planted in corn and additional idle acres in Eastern North Carolina, means there's plenty of room to expand.

And Rice believes that since North Carolina farmers have generally had experience growing corn, they wouldn't be running a great risk growing corn as they would growing a crop with which they have had no experience.

If you plant corn, which kind should you plant? Rice says it should be a certified first generation hybrid seed, which he says normally produces 20 per cent more grain than open-pollinated or second generation hybrid seed. Certified hybrids also have stronger stalks, greater weevil resistance, drought resistance and lower ear placement.

Lemon Butter Adds Dash To A Dish

Fish, meat and poultry dishes become quite special when you complement them with such a tasty topping as Lemon Butter Pats. With summer in the offing keep this in mind for picnic hamburgers and broiled steaks.

Savory Lemon Pats
1/4 pound (1/2 cup) butter or margarine
2 tablespoons grated lemon peel
3 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
1 teaspoon seasoned salt
2 tablespoons finely chopped parsley
1/4 teaspoon savory
1/4 teaspoon rosemary

Cream butter until soft. Add lemon peel and juice gradually, mixing until butter has absorbed juice. Stir in seasoned salt, chopped parsley, savory and rosemary. Place on waxed paper and mold into a roll. Chill until firm. Slice and serve on broiled steaks or hamburgers. Also delicious with chicken and fish. Yield: 12 pats.

Hints On Linens For Homemakers

State Home Demonstration Agt. Flat and fitted sheets are available in muslin or percale in the same price range. Fitted or contour sheets save bed-making time, eliminate ruffled beds and so make for comfortable sleeping.

Also, less ironing may be required since they fit so snugly on the mattress. There are bottom sheets with all four corners boxed; top sheets with only two corners boxed. Fitted sheets are sanforized and are made to fit many mattress sizes. Proper fit is important so before shopping check up on the size needed. Check chart for sizes in flat and fitted sheets.

Muslin sheets are widely used for everyday household service. The initial cost of the percales is higher, therefore they are considered the luxury sheets. But they are not. They are lighter in weight than the muslins, so the
