Letter Expresses Community's Loss of Doctor Cooley

deep loss experienced by our community in our community. He was also deeply religious, last week's passing of a well-loved citizen:

Dear Editor:

More than a score of years have passed since "Sam" Cooley came to us, in what then was a relatively small mountain village. But, in that short space of time, he and his family have won a lasting place in the hearts of a very large segment of our community.

Doctor Cooley was well prepared for the task before him. A background of deep religious and social education, topped by a medical training which he constantly and regularly sought to enlarge, made him an outstanding doctor and citizen-one to whom so many of us now owe so much. As a citizen, he gave not lip service, but actual service, devoting full mental and physical effort in
