Woodhouse in their home on Kentucky road. Circle 2, Mrs. Joseph Hopper, chairman, will meet at 3:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Marion Corbett on Friday, June 6. Circle 3, Mrs. W. Frank McElroy, chairman, will meet on Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. M. C. Wood on Mississippi road. Ext. The Business Woman's circle will meet at 7:45 p.m. on Tuesday in the home of Miss Elizabeth Hoyt on Kentucky road.
 The Men of Montreat will hold a supper meeting on Monday, May 2, at 6 p.m. in the green room of Assembly inn. The president, Thomas Sharp, will preside.
 The guest speaker will be Fred Burnett of Ridgecrest. He is chairman of the group who are investigating the sale of obscene literature in the state. He is a promoter of Junior Deputies. He will speak on reading for young people. All fathers of young people are urged to attend.
 The Baccalaureate service which was held in Gaither chapel on Sunday was well attended. The procession of the college student body, faculty and speakers was a fine sight. The sermon which was addressed to the graduates, "Possessions and Privileges", by Dr. J. Cecil Lawrence of Charlotte, was well worth hearing. The anthem "We Praise Thee", sung by the college chorus, was beautifully done. This good music will be greatly missed for the next few Sundays before the conferences start.
 The Montreat church congregation will continue for the first three Sundays in June with the pastor, the Rev. Stanley Bennett, in charge. The Wednesday prayer meetings will continue in the sun parlor at 4 p.m. for first three weeks of June.
 The Student Christian association held its vesper service on Sunday in Gaither chapel. The president, Martha Rose Miller, presided with Martha Poarch at the organ.
 Mr. and Mrs. Martin Foil of Concord, who purchased the Fisher cottage on Greybeard trail, spent a few days last week in their cottage.
 Bishop and Mrs. J. E. Kearney, who have spent the winter in Summerville, S. C., were in their cottage on Virginia road last week.
 Mrs. Albert Summey and Miss Ellen Brice of Charlotte, spent a few days last week with Miss Alice Hardie on Virginia road.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Orr of Charlotte, spent a few days last week in the Johnston home.
 Dr. and Mrs. Harry Bryan of Charlotte, spent a few days this past week in their cottage.
 The Rev. and Mrs. D. P. McGeachy, Jr. of Clearwater, Fla., were in their cottage on West Virginia terrace last week on a short stay. They were returning from Richmond, Va., where they attended the graduation of their son, Sandy, from Union Theological seminary. They also visited Mrs. McGeachy's brother, Dr. R. E. McClure, in Asheville. They were glad to report that Dr. McClure has fully recovered from his recent automobile accident.
 Mrs. Leroy Campbell and mother of Hickory, spent few days last week in the Campbell cottage.
 Miss Unia Mae Mangrum has returned from a year's study in Scotland. She is spending a few days in Montreat before returning to Texas for a visit. She will return to Montreat later.
