Montreat Resident Gets Letter from Koreo in Response to Her CARE Gift

INSIDE OUT FOR JOY—These Korean tots were too eager to try on properly the new underwear they received from CARE. "Long Johns" were among $1,400 worth of food, clothing, tools and books delivered to the Chong Ae Won Leprosarium through donations to the overseas relief agency by American individuals and groups.

Mrs. L. H. Foley, Assembly inn, sary and combination church and Montreat, has received a personal thank-you from South Korea for her gift of food through CARE. In a letter from Chong Ju, Mrs. Foley learned that her $5 package has been delivered to the Chong Ae Won Leprosarium for adults and children.

"We were somewhat of the 'Orphan Annie' variety," reads the letter, written for the recipients by Dr. Rolf von Scorebrand, an American government employee in Korea. "We know," he told Mrs. Foley, "now that we have some friends in distant lands, your thoughts will give us courage and endurance."

Chong Ae Won means a settlement of "Clear Vision and Love." Ten years ago, according to the letter, it was a "miserable place," with a few discarded army tents and scraps of food. Today there are houses, roads, wells, a dispen-

"THE CRYSTAL"

"But Thee, but Thee, O Sovereign Seer of time,
But Thee, O Poet's poet, Wisdom's tongue,
But Thee, O Man's best man, O Love's best love,
O perfect life in perfect labor writ,
O all men's Comrade, Servant, King or Priest—
What if or yet, what mole, what flaw, what lapse,
What real defect, or shadow of defect,
What rumor, tattled by an enemy,
Of inference loose, what lack of grace,
Even in torture's grasp or sleep's or death's

JAMES PAGE IS LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE AT FORESTRY CAMP

Representing Buncombe county at the twelfth annual North Carolina Forestry Camp for Farm Boys June 8-16 at Singletary Lake was James Page of Black Mountain.

Page was one of 91 boys who attended the camp which was sponsored by the Champion Paper and Fibre company and three other North Carolina member mills of the Southern Pulpwood Conservation association. The group of campers included 19 from the western North Carolina area.

Among the experienced technical foresters who served as instructors and counselors at the camp were Max M. Dillingham and Lewis Herron, Conservation Foresters of the Carolina Division of Cham-

The camp provided a full week of forestry instruction with emphasis on learning-by-doing. Discussions were augmented by actual practice on the part of the boys in the various forestry operations. Subjects studied, demonstrated and engaged in by the groups included forest fire prevention and suppression, forest management, forest utilization, insect and disease control, tree identification and timber estimating.

The campers were selected from their home counties for the privilege of attending the camp, and the entire week's activities were designated to train the farm boys—many of whom will in the future own timberland—in methods of profitable management.

Oh, what amiss may I forgive in Thee,
Jesus, thou good Paragon, 'thou Crystal Christ?"

In his poem entitled "The Crystal," Sidney Lanier contrasts Christ with all the great and good of history. In Shakespeare he finds much to forgive. In Homer and Socrates there is something to forgive.

"So, Buddha, beautiful, I pardon thee
That the All thou hast for needy man
Was nothing; and thy Best of being was
But not to be."

In Dante, Milton, Lucretius, Kempis, Epictetus, Emerson, Keats and Tennyson, there is something to forgive. But when he turns to Jesus, he sees nothing to forgive: "Lanier's vision of the Christ was as clear in the gloom of sorrow as in the gleam of nature's glories," wrote Rev. A. C. Dixon in his "Sidney Lanier," The Johns Hopkins' Poet."

Dr. A. C. Dixon, father of our own Mrs. Clara Dixon (Frank Howard) Richardson, was pastor of the University Baptist church, New York City, and later preached in the "Tabernacle" in London. He and Dr. Chas. Alexander, noted singer, held evangelistic services throughout England and Scotland. This excerpt is by courtesy of Mrs. F. H. Richardson.
