Boy Scout Building Fund

FRIDAY, JULY 18, 8:30 P.M.!

acking man aus:

COUNTY NEWSPAPER

High Low Prec.

Weather

.09 .23 .14 .02 July

THURSDAY, JULY 17, 1958, BLACK MOUNTAIN, NORTH CAROLINA

10 PAGES TODA Y

NO. 46.

REFLECTIONS

by Gordon Greenwood

girl who throws herself at ever Mrs. . . . One thing good old days-if you horse you could be certhe model wouldn't efore you wore it out. . . . ire caused not so much by ou eat as by what's eating isit of the Lions club to erri-Mac each summer is a pleasant affair. The food the surroundings the hosts delightful, and ram outstanding.

eek's meeting was no ex-I don't know how they with such polished peryear-after-year, but they

They were all good, but of ial interest was Mrs. Eugene lersberger, Bible teacher, who turned recently after having ent 30 years in Africa as a She and her husnd now make their home in Melbourne, Fla., but spend the nmer at Camp Merri-Mac.

Kellersberger gave some sting incidents that happened her missionaries on the Dark forget the dramatic stories he teeth, the eye, and the "leg was too tough to chew." age as it may seem, most of lieved the stories-all three them-although we had been ed by the speaker that the t two were true and that we wanted to. I believed.

If you haven't enjoyed the reent rainy weather-maybe you'd ike to place the blame on Bruce Wilshire, Silo Circle player who as the title role in this week's oduction, "The Rain Maker." a magical rain-bringer in the

-Turn to Page 10

ale of "White Elephants" to Aid Black Mtn. PTA

The Black Mountain PTA will ld a "white elephant" sale at e Royal Art gallery Saturday rning, July 26, beginning at 11 clock. The committee in charge ks that you look through your ties and closets for articles that en't being used and call Mrs. rank Watkins NO 9-5063.

All proceeds will go to the PTA. Roti from the Art Gallery, has ST. JAMES' WOMEN ry graciously donated many val-able items for the sale, the comittee said.

ING SCHEDULED HOMER'S CHAPEL

a cordial invitation to attend. week-end bake needs."

Production equip-

to the concrete-mix-

etting the big old barn

articles we'll go into personalities and jobs

n and find out more -Turn to Page 10

to a real theater.

Proposed Scout Clubhouse Are Shown

Tysons Review inent. Lions and their guests won't Furniture Styles

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Tyson, Jr., Tyson Furniture Company, who attended the southern furniture and d believe the tough leg story if rug market in High Point, stated that homemakers will be excited about the new designs and styles in furniture and home furnishings.

> Several thousand retailers attended the market which was held at the Southern Furniture Exposition building.

Modern furniture is still the wers began just as the players vations have been introduced into an rehearsals of "The Rain this style. Elegant touches and clean-cut lines which give her ease public. of maintainence, as well as good Italian Provincial continue to be the trustees last week. popular in all price categories.

> nessed the construction of the new the year's operations and Bun- nine adults and 308 children re- O., was best man for his brother- chosen field of the theater. This Wrenn street wing of the Exposi- combe county supplied $500. tion building. The new addition will be the largest all-welded con- librarian, Miss Ruby Hall, from Leeman as treasurer follows: struction in the Carolinas and will July 1, 1957, to July 1, 1958, the Cash balance July 1, 1957, $95.07; Following a reception in the so- sitive audience. provide 140,000 square feet of Black Mountain Library circulated receipts: Town of Black Moun- cial hall of the church, the couple is expected to be completed in December, 1958.

iliary will hold a baked goods sale a.m. For any special items call Homer's Chapel is having a sing- Mrs. H. E. Stinchcomb, NO 9-8203. convention Saturday night, The committee in charge suggests y 19, beginning at 7:30. All that you "take a rest and let the gers and the public are extend- auxiliary members solve your

with CLARA CRAWFORD

Plans for a Boy Scout clubhouse property between Lake Tomahawk have been completed and hopes of and Highway 70 is the chosen site.

the Scout committee of Troop 25 A drawing of the exterior is shown are that the building detailed above below. Plans have been drawn by may soon become a reality as a Mrs. Ruth H. Westbrook, A.I.A. local youth center. The project A Silo Circle Playhouse performis designed to meet the needs of ance of this week's play, "The Rain IS Married To all Scout and Cub Scout groups Well "Sout groups Well "Sout groups and Cub Scout groups and Cub Scout groups and Cub Scout groups and Cub Scout groups are sent groups and Cub Scout groups and Cub Scout groups are sent groups and Cub Scout groups and Cub Scout groups are sent groups and cub sent groups are sent groups are sent groups and cub sent groups are sent groups are sent groups and groups are sent groups are sent groups and groups are sent groups are sent groups and groups are sent groups are all Scout and Cub Scout groups, Maker," Friday night is being in addition to such other groups sponsored by the Kiwanis club to as Little League baseball. Town benefit the Scout building fund.

19,028 Books Circulated Last Year by Anecdote has it that the local style leader and again many inno-lowers began just as the players vations have been introduced into

The Black Mountain public library in the City Hall building navment of staff salaries and the tip veil of silk illusion was ar-The Black Mountain public library in the City Hall build- a wedding gown of white silk tafmed the words which proved to at the High Point market empha- more than $2,000, including payment of staff salaries and the ranged from a half-cap of Alencon sizes the homemaker's desire for sum of $941.78 expended for new books for the reading lace, and she carried a prayerbook storage space, too, is stressed in contained in the treasurer's report tion and 50 non-fiction were added cousin, wore a full-length gown nightly at 8:30 this week and at

According to the report of the Two hundred and six fiction and

These statistics and others re- 39 non-fiction books were added Miss Lois Elizabeth Bloodgood, and eager now to enjoy a week of style. The need for additional lating to library operations were to the adult's library and 233 fic- who was maid of honor for her drama. The show will continue The Town of Black Mountain having been withdrawn due to feathered pink carnations.

registered during ths year.

non-fiction; 8080 juvenile fiction 1956-1957 arrears), $1,380.00; Bun--Turn to Page 10

St. James Episcopal church aux- Christmount Assembly at Tyson Furniture store Saturday, July 19, beginning at 8:30 Hears National Leaders

The Spiritual Life conference for the Southeastern states was a revealing experience for the attending delegates from Scout Funds 10 states at Christmount assembly recently.

BEHIND THE SCENES At The Silo Circle Playhouse

(Photo by Ed DuPuy)

A good share of the success of current productions at ironing board for the the Silo Circle playhouse is due to the joint efforts of the the Silo Circle playhouse is due to the James the Silo Circle playhouse is due to the Silo Circle playhouse the Silo C ing effects is being made by, left to right, Glenn B. Hill, Larry will house the overflow. Henderson, Charles L. Parmalee, who is production manager, and Bruce Wilshire. Wilshire, like a number in the comand Bruce Wilshire. Wilshire, and actor, he has the tonsillectomy at Memorial Mission held Sunday, July 20 at 2:30 at will be announced later. title role in this week's show, "The Rain Maker".

A team of seven nationally known leaders set the tone by sharing their deepest personal experiences in their various fields of endeavor in their addresses.

develop a deeper spiritual reality the youngsters. as individual Christians, church ship and consecration dominated were reached for the social action deemed necessary to meet present J. Miller, Asheville. world needs.

Local members of the Christmount Christian church were so 17 Honored much impressed by the practical, ecumenical plans developed that an By Lions Club insistent request was made to the national team to make such a con- Service Awards ference an annual affair at Christ-

The Christian churches of this dent, presided. area will send delegates to the Ecumenical institute at Blue Ridge ship in the Lions club went to J. type for this area. Assembly July 20-25. Many of Ike Cook, Sr., J. M. Lance, H. W. the program.

Miss Bloodgood Guy Ledbetter

Miss Barbara Ann Bloodgood of Norfolk, Va., and Guy Rector Ledbetter of Blackstone, Va., were married Saturday at 4 p.m. in the Larchmont Methodist church, Nor-

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Julius Edward Bloodgood. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rector Ledbetter of Black

The Rev. Clarence Ambrose Turner, Jr., pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

Claude F. Bloodgood, Jr., gave his niece in marriage. She wore tip veil of silk illusion was ar-all lines. French Provincial and presented at the annual meeting of to the juvenile collection, making of pale pink taffeta. Her head- a Saturday (2:30 p.m.) matinee. a total of 7143 books, 141 books dress and cascade bouquet were of Buyers visiting High Point wit- contributed the sum of $1200 for wear. One hundred and seventy-in-law, and the groomsmen were kind of pleasure in a chosen pro-The report of Mrs. Marian N. Lieut. Richard Stamey and John fession has an almost tangible qual-Lightfoot. ity, highly communicable to a senshowroom area. The new building 7835 adult fiction books and 879 of tain ($180.00 of this figure for left for a northern wedding trip. After spending the summer in books and 2234 non-fiction books combe county, $500.00; rentals on Blackstone, they will reside in Ra-TABERNACLE BIBLE were circulated, a total of 19,028. books, $54.17; fines, $133.82; lost leigh, where Mr. Ledbetter will SCHOOL IS OPEN TO ALL CHILDREN begin graduate study at North Carolina State college.

Silo Show Will Benefit Kiwanis

The Black Mountain-Swannanoa Kiwanis club is selling tickets to class of the Methodist church will this week's Friday, July 18, per- hold its monthly covered-dish sup- and Lawton Allen families are corformance of "The Rain Maker" at per and meeting Friday evening dially invited to attend the wed- the conference under way at 8 p.m. the Silo Circle theater. One-third at 6:30. All members and their ding of Miss Yvonne Nanney and Wednesday with a welcome greetof the proceeds will benefit the families are cordially invited to Laurance Albert Allen at 3 p.m. ing. The keynote address was de-Following each address both local Boy Scout organization. Per- come and bring a dish of their Saturday, July 19, in the First Bap- livered by Dr. Noel Bowman of the leaders and delegates assembled in sons wishing tickets for the show choice. small groups for prayer and discus- on Friday are urged to buy them sion as to how they might each through Kiwanis and thereby help

The Kiwanis meeting Thursday members and world citizens. In was a business meeting with no in the School of Education, Despeaker. Guests present were the sessions and definite resolves Sayles, Miami; W. C. Crucscuber-

Staff members and campers of Camp Merri-mac, where members M. D. Pate for the summer. Several families of ministers of of the Lions club were entertained, Christian churches are camping were featured at a Lions club meetthis week in the cottages at Christ- ing last Thursday night. Woodrow Beddingfield, first vice presi-

Awards for 20 years' member-Christian ministers and leaders Sanders and Clyde Stubbs; 15have assisted in the organization year awards to William Hickey, ture, the director points out that of the institute and will appear on Tom Nesbitt, J. G. Northcott, W. there will be time and an oppor- ors have emphasized that the and that they are welcome to use W. White, and Robert E. Williams; So many delegates from all for 10 years, to Charles Clevenger, activities, including arts, crafts, munity are invited and urged to any or all of the activities. churches are expected at Blue Gordon Greenwood, J. L. Holman, and dancing, among others, as the use the facilities and take part in This program is similar to that nor, B. W. Rowland, Dempsey Whitaker and H. McGuire Wood.

the Weaverville Country clubhouse. The sponsors and the supervis- Ruth and the Little leagues are Buncombe county.

Mary Gonzales

summer. Both training union weeks

thus far have been larger than

Dr. Walter L. Moore, pastor of the First Baptist church in Meridboth messages Sunday at 11 a.m.

and 7:50 p.m., and will speak

This Week's Silo

Audience Favorite

By Dorothy Mattison

an ever-widening area appear ready

"The Rain Maker" is a happy

start its Vacation Bible school through the 25th. The hours will be from 9 to 11:30 a.m. All chil-

CO-WORKERS TO HOLD

JULY SUPPER ON 18th

-Turn to Page 5

-Turn to Page 4

of the music program.

those in 1957.

ian, Miss., will be principal speaker for the week. He will bring Circle playhouse, located on Old of C .- sponsored "Clean-Up Week" nightly, except Friday, at 8:25 p.m. Menagerie," Tennessee William's secretary, George Moray, was giv-Sam D. Allen, minister of music Critics' Circle award winning mas- en a salary raise. at the University Baptist church, Abilene, Tex., will be in charge nee Saturday at 2:30 p.m., replacing "The Dover Road" which was originally scheduled as the fourth Director Jerry D. Rumley stated Show Proves to Be that heading the cast will be Mary Gonzalez as Amenda, a little woman of great vitality clinging frantically to another time and place; Carl Williams as Tom (her son), a poet with a warehouse job; Elaine Hunter (her daughter), a Audience reaction at Monday night's opening performance of N. Richard Nash's play, "The Rain Maker," indicated that this current week's production at the Silo Cirbe obtained at the box office by ing of the Buncombe County Board at a meetfavorite of Black Mountain's new national Gift shop in Asheville. day. summer theatrical season thus far.

dy, "See How They Run."

E. L. Pemberton, 50-Yr. Local Resident, Dies

Edmund Lilly Pemberton, Jr., brother of A. J. Pemberton of Black Mountain, died Wednesday night, July 9, in Highsmith hospital, Fayetteville, after a long opens B. R. Meet and lingering illness which began with a stroke in 1942. He had resided at his summer home in Black Tabernacle Methodist church will Mountain for approximately 50 Monday, July 21, and continue years.

After attending the public schools in Fayetteville, Mr. Pem- Southern Industrial Relations condren of the community are ex- berton continued his education at ference opened here July 16 for a tended a cordial invitation to at- North Carolina State college and four-day session. -Turn to Page 4

ALLEN AND NANNEY FAMILIES INVITED TO ATTEND WEDDING The Co-Workers Sunday school

All friends of the Clark Nanney in Southern industry. tist church, Black Mountain.

Common Efforts Urged to Insure Community's Fut.

Recommendations which he beieves would insure the beauty and prosperity of Black Mountain's future were outlined in an address by Alex Williams, former Mayor of Vero Beach, Fla., and long-time Florida state legislator, in addressing a meeting of the Black Mountain Chamber of Commerce at noon on Tuesday at the Monte Vista hotel.

Mayor Richard B. Stone, mayor of Black Mountain, introduced the speaker. William H. McMurray, Jr., presided at the session at which business included a vote to grant to the local Fire Department new four-week-old Silo an award of $25 offered in the C. U. S. 70, two miles west of Black held in the Spring. By unanimous Mountain, will present "The Glass vote, the Chamber of Commerce terpiece. Co-Producer Tinka Craw- Mr. Williams strongly advocated ford announces that "Menagerie" the increase of parking areas in will play nightly July 21 through downtown Black Mountain to pro-July 26 at 8:30 p.m. with a mati-tect local businesses from "suffo--Turn to Page 4

Northcott Heads Co. School Board: Name Mrs. Pollock

J. G. Northcott of Black Moungirl who lives in a world of her tain, was elected chairman and own illusions; and Burt Edwards Mrs. Mary Bauman Pollock, formas the gentleman caller. Ticket erly of Montreat, was sworn in as calling NO 9-8429, or at the Inter- of Education in Asheville on Mon-

Having acclaimed the group's faSilo Circle audiences, drawing cratic executive committee Saturcomedy and farce, play-goers from great appreciation in her role of day nominated Mrs. Pollock to fill Miss Skillon in last week's come- a vacancy on the County Board of Education.

Mrs. Pollock wife of H. E. (Ned) Pollock and daughter of former Democratic Chairman Albert R. Bauman, succeeds Frank E. Laycock who died recently. She also is expected to be named by the Legislature next year for a full sixyear term for which Laycock was nominated in the May 31 Democratic primary.

Governor Hodges of Industrialists

The 39th annual meeting of the

More than 1,100 Southern businessmen and industrialists, ranging from plant foremen to top level executives, are attending the meeting which is dedicated to the improvement of human relations

Governor Luther H. Hodges got

SWANNANOA'S SUPERVISED YOUTH PROGRAM

Jim Tutterow, a rising senior partment of Industrial and Rural Education, at N. C. State college, ry, Birmingham, Ala., and Steven vised play and recreation at Swanis directing a program of supernanoa for the summer, Herbert Coman, general chairman, announced today. Mr. Coman, personnel manager of Beacon Manufacturing company, which sponsors the program, will act as sup-

Mr. and Mrs. Tutterow are living in the home of Mr. and Mrs.

The summer work here by the native of Burlington, N. C., is a part of his work at N. C. State. He will be graded by the college and will, if his work is satisfactory receive credit toward graduation. This is the first program of this

Although greatest part of the

The program opened Monday A picnic for the blind will be until the end of the summer. Hours village and at the new Coman field ic council with funds supplied by

Jim Tutterow

tunity to engage in many other young people of the entire com-

already in operation and the standing and results of last week appear elsewhere in this issue of the News.

Coman field, the new stadium completed recently near the entrance to Swannanoa, is modern in every respect. Named for Herb Coman, the personnel director, the field has dugouts, scoreboard, stands, and a surface that would be welcomed in higher classifications. Responsible for much of the work were "Gog" Martin and Charlie Ferguson, both members of the Beacon varsity nine. Coman field is a standard size field for Little league play.

"We believe that Mr. Tutterow will be of great value to us in the promotion of our program of recreation and will help us reach the maximum number of boys and girls in the Swannanoa Valley," Mr. Coman said. "We want the public to know that this is their program the facilities and to participate in the program. There is no charge, sponsored each summer here by Play will be in progress on two the Black Mountain Recreation morning and will continue daily fields, at Nolan field in the upper Council and more recently the Civin the lower village. The Babe the United Fund of Asheville and