Kiwanis Reports Numerous Guests

The Kiwanis club meeting last week was a musical program. Miss Irma Rogers of the Silo Circle theater, sang three numbers accompanied by Miss Jane Bowness at the piano. The numbers were: "Shall We Dance?" "I Could Have Danced All Night," and "Getting to Know You." The numbers were beautifully rendered and were thoroughly enjoyed.

President Charles Porter expressed his appreciation to both Black Mountain and Swannanoa communities for their purchase of tickets to "The Rain Maker" by the Circle Playhouse last week. Part of the revenue goes to the Boy Scout fund.

Guests present were: Sam Leonard, Asheville; Earle Lippincott, New York City; John Hoffner, Asheville; W. H. McMurray, Sr., Bill Powell, Atlanta, Harry Wilson, Albany, Ga.; Jack Dobson, Tallahassee, Fla., and the musicians.

President Porter expressed his gratification at the large number of out-of-town Kiwanians who attend Thursday luncheons.

"THE BALLAD OF THE TREES AND THE MASTER"

"Into the woods my Master went,
Clean forsopt, forsopt;
Into the woods my Master came,
Forsopt with love and shame.
But the olives, they were not blind
to him,
The little grey leaves were kind
to him;

The thorn-tree had a mind to him,
When into the woods He came.
"Out of the woods my Master went,
And He was well content.
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame.
When death and shame would woo
him last,
From under the trees they drew
him last.
'Twas on a tree they slew Him
last,
When out of the woods He came."

—Sidney Lanier.

Lanier had learned the meaning of the words of Jesus, "and I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me, and this He said signifying what death He should die."

The basis of Sidney Lanier's character and work, as musician, poet, and teacher, was his faith in God; and he was the man that he was, the musician that he was, and the poet that he was, because he was the Christian that he was. The sense of God was ever with him, and with clear vision he saw God in Christ. Before a stupendous task for which he did not feel equal, he consoled himself with the thought that "God is great."

These comments are from Dr. A. C. Dixon's booklet on Lanier, given by courtesy of Mrs. Frank Howard Richardson.

Prices start lowest...capacity goes highest in Chevy pickups!

You have your choice of the fast-stepping Stepsides, featuring America's lowest priced popular pickup, or the fleet new Fleetsides, offering more load space than any comparable popular models.

Look over Chevrolet's lineup of 12 different models—and pick the pickup that suits your job best. For cutting costs, there are the fast-working Stepsides, which include America's lowest priced popular pickup. For hauling bigger loads, there are the handsome new Fleetsides—with pickup boxes a full 6 feet wide—offering more cargo space than any comparable low-priced models.

Your dealer's got all the facts on why no other pickup brings you such rock-bottom dependability at Chevy's rock-bottom price.
