Foreign Guests Entertained At Church Luncheon

The MYF of the State Street Methodist church entertained the Scandinavian Caravan with a covered-dish luncheon Thursday, July 18 in the Fellowship hall of the church.
The Caravan, composed of four girls and one boy from Norway, Sweden, and Finland, visited different churches in this area during the past week. The members of the Caravan are Miss Lissa Kaijala, the counselor, of Finland, Miss Margaretta Carro of Sweden, Miss Aste Gabrielson of Finland, Miss Birgitta Ahlbert of Sweden, and Thor Pytte of Norway.
Following the luncheon, the Caravan members and some of the MYF members went on a tour of the assemblies at Black Mountain. Approximately 25 attended the luncheon.

Activities Varied At Christmount
The new pool at Christmount is the main attraction for the families of the several Christian ministers now camping at Christmount.
Here wholesome recreation, new fellowships and communal living are being enjoyed since all members of the family find pleasure in this mountain retreat.
Several states are represented in the present group, many of them participants in the Ecumenical institute being held at Blue Ridge assembly.

This series of shots is taken from the action of "Horn in the West", outdoor drama playing nightly, except Mondays, at 8:15 in Boone. Upper left is the trading scene between Indians and the British Redcoats, while the top right shot shows Indians being stopped by their princess Nancy Ward after attacking Daniel Boone and others in a frontier cabin. Middle photo is the concluding prayer given at center-stage before a large and appreciative audience. Bottom left shows the Widow Howard getting a swat from one of the Colonists in one of many humorous scenes. Right-hand picture is of the exciting Indian "Fire Dance".
