

Dr. L. Nelson Bell led the Bible lesson in the Winnsborough building on Sunday. A large group attended. At 11 Dr. John Melton, pastor of First Presbyterian church, Baton Rouge, La., gave an inspiring and soul-stirring message and told of his recent trip to the mission work in the Congo, Africa. This was an appropriate message. A large crowd was present in the auditorium as this is one of the largest conferences of the year.

The flowers were given in memory of the late R. L. Justice, a very faithful and loyal member of the Montreat Woman's club. The woman's club will meet on Monday, Aug. 4, at 3 p.m. in the club house (next to the Book store). This is the annual benefit tea which the club has in order to replenish the club funds. Those who wish to help with the various gifts to the club sponsors are invited to come and enjoy a social hour together.

The Church Music Conference will be held July 31-August 6. Rev. Wm. H. Foster, Jr. is director. Concerts and lectures will be given in Anderson Auditorium. On the 31st at 8 p.m. the 55-voice choral choir of the Church of the Covenant in Charlotte, accompanied by a string quartet, directed by Mrs. Richard Peek, will present a concert of sacred music. The famous Hand Bell Ringers of Covenant church will have a part in this special concert, to which all are invited.

The faculty: Haskell Boyter, Male; Deane Edwards, Dean; Ernest Gordon, William Lemonds, Austin C. Lovelace, Betty L. Peek, Richard Peek, Travis Shelton and Wm. H. Foster, Jr.

Dr. William Lemonds of Second Presbyterian church, Kansas City, Mo., which has 12 choirs with over 400 voices will direct the Youth choir for junior and senior high school ages.

The preachers for next Sunday, Aug. 3, will be Rev. John Randolph Taylor, Church of the Pilgrim, Washington, D. C., at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m.

The Cottage Owner's association met on Thursday, July 24, in the room in back of the auditorium. The president, Mrs. Jean Richards Roddy, presided. Many of the members attended and some newcomers. It was an interesting and spirited meeting. The Rev. Ace L. Tubbs gave an account of the new directory the committee had made and of the warm reception it has received from business firms and those coming into Montreat. It is a big help in finding homes in Montreat. Thanks and a check was given to Miss Tina White for her work in this project. She did practically all of the work involv-

Burnett from the board's staff, and Charles H. Warnock, Jr., Columbus, Ga., and Mrs. R. S. Entzinger, Columbia, S. C., will lead personal interest conferences offered each week day at 7 p.m. The evening general assembly programs will start at 8 o'clock.

William J. Reynolds, editor of the periodical, "Church Musician," published by the Baptist department of church music, will direct the music program.

Tonight's schedule will vary from the normal agenda. The service will commence at 7 p.m., the song service and the introduction of faculty members coming first. J. P. Edmunds, secretary of the research and statistics department of the board, will speak on "Let's Face the Facts" at 8 o'clock, and Rev. Swilley will bring his initial message at 8:30. State meetings will follow Rev. Swilley's talk.

More than 3200 attended the first week devoted to Sunday school work. Many decisions were made during the session by individual as Dr. Baker James Cauthen, considered one of the finest evangelists in the Southern Baptist convention, preached Sunday morning and each week day evening.

Dr. Ralph A. Herring, pastor of the First Baptist church in Winston-Salem, spoke Sunday night.

W. I. Kelley, 34, Dies July 21

William Iralee Kelly, 34, died Monday, July 21, at his home on Lakey Gap road, after a long illness. Funeral services were conducted Thursday in the Lakey Gap Presbyterian church with the Rev. J. B. Trotti, pastor, officiating. Burial was in the Tabernacle church cemetery.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Kelly of Black Mountain; three sisters, Mrs. Ben Imman of Swannanoa, Mrs. Byrd Imman of Black Mountain, and Miss Dorothy Kelly of the home; one brother, James Kelly of Black Mountain; and one half-brother, Johnnie Tensley of Connelly Springs.

Harrison Funeral Home was in charge.

ASHEVILLE PRESBYTERY HOLDS SESSION HERE

In a one-day meeting at Black Mountain Presbyterian church last Tuesday Asheville Presbytery voted to purchase a 20-acre site for a camp and conference ground. The group also authorized steps toward organization of a Negro church in Asheville. The proposed camp site would be in the Fairview section of Buncombe county, it was stated.

Rev. G. B. Talbot of Swannanoa, was named to the church extension committee.
