CP&L Area Sites Attract Plants

The past six months brought announced plans by industry to spend $46,752,000 for new and expanded plants in the two-state area served by Carolina Power & Light company.

The 44 new plants and 24 expansions will create nearly 6,000 new jobs and annual payroll of $18,000,000, according to Dan E. Stewart, CP&L area development manager.

The coming six months are expected to make this year's industrial growth greater than the $90 million in 1957, he said.

Electronics, food processing and poultry are leaders in new and expanding industry.

Stewart listed Swift and company, Gerber, Quaker Oats, Pyramid Electric, Dixie Cup, Shalcross Manufacturing, Kellogg Switchboard & Supply Division of International Telephone-Telegraph Co., Saco-Lowell, and Kearfott company among the nationally known firms planning new plants and expansions in the area.

MONTREAT

MISS JULIA STOKES

The Church Music conference is going forth with a fine attendance and great interest. This is the largest music conference held so far.

The Music Conference choir under the direction of Travis Shelton with Robert E. Stigall at the organ was a great tribute to the musicians of the church. They gave two beautiful anthems which added much to the morning worship service Aug. 3. It was good to have one of our own Montreat boys give the message. The Rev. John Randolph Taylor (Randy) was not so many years ago the boy who sold tickets at the gate. They do grow up, and it is good to see them grow into such outstanding ministers.

On Saturday, Aug. 9, at 8 p.m. the young people of Montreat will put on a program. They are under the direction of A. Heath Whittle. This is always a good program and everyone is looking forward to a good time.

The Church Extension conference is meeting in Montreat Aug. 7-13.

The Bible teacher is Dr. William M. Logan, University Presbyterian church, Austin, Tex. The topic "In the Beginning God." On Thursday and Friday nights the speaker is Dr. Wade P. Huie, Jr., Professor of Homiletics, Columbia Theological Seminary, Decatur, Ga. He is the speaker for Sunday morning.

Dr. John R. Redhead, Jr., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Greensboro, will speak on Sunday through Wednesday nights. There will be missionaries to speak for the vesper services. There will be a hymn sing led by Fred Ohl, Atlanta, Ga., at 6:45 p.m. in Anderson chapel. The inspirational addresses in Anderson auditorium at 7:45. Recreation after evening services for all ages in Anderson chapel.

The Montreat Woman's club had a fine meeting July 28 in the club house. The guest speaker, William Howell, gave a most interesting talk on minerals in North Carolina and showed some of his collection. Many of these were from far away lands as well as native stones. Since Montreat is full of stones it is good to know that some are valuable.

The club will meet on Monday, Aug. 11, at 4 p.m. in the club house.

A nominating committee composed of Miss Mary Stewart McLeod, Mrs. Larry Wilson, and Mrs. Chris Matheson are working on the list of new officers to be elected at the last meeting to serve for two years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Donoho have as guests their daughter, Mrs. W. V. Steddum of Manitou Springs, Colorado, for a week; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Grase and two children, Barbara and Robert, of Tallahassee, Fla., for a month. They all went to the wedding on Sunday of Miss Freda Graybeal to W. R. Donoho, Jr., U. S. Navy, which took place in Salem Presbyterian church, Washington College, Tenn., at 6 p.m., Aug. 3. The Rev. Richard Gilbert of New York City performed the ceremony. After a short honeymoon they will be at home in Newfoundland where W. R. Donoho, Jr., is stationed as the Air Force photographer.

Dr. John A. Redhead, Jr., has joined his family in their summer cottage on Virginia road. Their daughter, Virginia visited here last week.

Virginia Ann Redhead and Richard Englehardt Bethune were married on May 5 at the First Presbyterian church, Greensboro, with the bride's father and the Rev. M. C. MacQueen officiating. They are making their home in Richmond, Va., as Dick has another year at Union Theological seminary.

Mrs. Lillian Cole of Tampa, Fla., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. W. N. Stevenson, and family in her cottage on Mississippi road.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Graham and four children of Columbia, S. C., are spending two weeks in the Cork cottage on Louisiana road.

Dr. Russell G. McAllister with his wife and son of Richmond, Va., are visiting the McAllister, in their cottage on South Carolina terrace. Dr. and Mrs. Chusey Gleason of Louisville, Ky., are visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Entenza of Jacksonville, Fla., spent last week with Mrs. Entenza's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Holt at their home in Richmond, Va. Dr. and Mrs. Holt are leaving for a month's travel to New York state. There they will visit Mrs. Holt's brother and points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace J. Thomas, III, of Beaver, Pa., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Pack. Mrs. Thomas is the former Sallie Pack.

Mrs. Alford Morgan of Converse college, Spartanburg, is in the Hamilton cottage on Kentucky road.

The Rev. and Mrs. David Moylan have purchased the Paul Hasting cottage on South Carolina terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hendrick of Birmingham are spending a few days as guests of Miss Grace Hardie in her home on Assembly drive.

Miss Mary Bryan has returned home after a trip to Europe. She is a senior in Agnes Scott college, Decatur, Ga., and is in the Bryan cottage for a few weeks.

Mrs. Charles Foulkes-Taylor and son Michael of Australia are visiting Mrs. Collins Lee for a week. They will go with Mrs. Lee to visit Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee and family in Georgia this week.

Mrs. Geza Soos and children have returned from a trip to New York where they went to meet Mrs. Soos' father, Laurence Tudos of Hungary. Mr. Tudos left Budapest on July 29 and arrived in Idlewild Airport on July 30. They visited Hungarian friends en route and some friends in and near New York City. Mrs. Soos said her father is delighted to be in the United States and had a wonderful trip over.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Donoho have as guests their daughter, Mrs. W. V. Steddum of Manitou Springs,

Christmas Trees Now to Be Graded

For the first time, Tar Heel farmers can sell their Christmas trees on the basis of federally standardized grades.

According to John Gilliam, forestry specialist for the N. C. Agricultural Extension service, the grades should enable growers to get a better return for quality trees.

The U. S. grade standards, which were requested by state and national Christmas tree associations, will become effective Nov. 1.

Grading will be voluntary, and inspection service will be provided by USDA at all major shipping points and terminal markets. Fees are expected to be moderate.

Grades will include U. S. Premium, U. S. No. 1 and U. S. No. 2. Trees that cannot qualify for any of these grades will be listed as culls.

Forestry Specialist Gilliam pointed out that in the past growers have sold their trees in random lots, which contained as much as 30 per cent culls.

"Dealers could not pay too much for trees like these," Gilliam said. "With grading the growers can demand better prices for their trees, and can determine which trees to leave in the field for later harvest or other purposes."

The grades will also give the growers and buyers a similar language in transacting their business, he added.
