MONTREAT

MISS JULIA STOKES

The Montreat conference season is coming to a close, but it is a case of saying the best 'til the last. Last Sunday Dr. George M. Docherty, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian church, Washington, D. C., preached a fine sermon to a large audience in Anderson Auditorium. On next Sunday Dr. Billy Graham will preach for the 11 o'clock service, and Rev. John Anderson Ross, Mackenzie for the 8 p.m. service. This will close the Bible conference. The public is invited to all services during the Bible conference.

On Saturday night at 8 o'clock in Anderson Auditorium there will be a lecture given by Dr. Paul Leslie Garber, "Cities of St. Paul Today," with colored slides. The public is invited.

On Monday, Aug. 25, the Montreat Woman's club will have its last meeting of the season with a covered-dish supper on Winstonsboro porch at 5 p.m. The president, Mrs. Caldwell Ragan, will preside. The new officers will be installed and a memorial service will be held for those members who died in the last year.

All meetings of the Woman's club have had good attendance. Many attended the tea given on August 4 and a good offering was given. Mrs. Lacy Little served punch, which was greatly enjoyed during the hot afternoon.

A good crowd heard the speaker, Joseph A. Home of Black Mountain and Lake Wales, Fla., at the meeting of the Woman's club on August 11. Mr. Home is an authority on countries in South America and gave an interesting and informative talk on Venezuela. A very beautiful country to visit, but when it comes to everyday living, North Carolina is the best, Mr. Home said and stated that he and family are glad to be retired in this section of the country and this country. Mrs. Charles Watkins was hostess for this meeting.

The flowers in the auditorium were given in memory of Mrs. Frank H. Wardlaw, a past president of the Montreat Woman's club.

The singers in Montreat have always been good, but to get up a lovely concert in a short time is an unusual thing. That is what happened on Saturday night as the violinist who was to have given a concert, was unable to come. Mr. and Mrs. Allan Guy, and Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Dunford with other singers gave a treat that was greatly enjoyed by all.

Services for Charles T. Landring, father of Mrs. A. G. Whitaker of Louisiana road extension, were held on Wednesday at Medford, Ore. Burial was in the family plot in Riverside cemetery, Ashland, Ore.

Mr. Landring died Sunday in the home of another daughter in Medford, Ore. He was in good health until this attack. He would have been 77 in October. Besides Mrs. Whitaker there are four other daughters and two sons. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Whitaker and family.

Mrs. John Knox Simpson, Miss Louise Simpson and two of Mrs. Simpson's grandchildren left Saturday for Jacksonville, Fla., after having spent the summer here.
