REFLECTIONS—

gag making the rounds back during depression days. Instead of returning checks with the afore mentioned notation they sent them back in those days marked "No Bank".

During World War II when the Air Force was sending thousands of heavy bombers over the continent daily, some bright boy coined this highly descriptive phrase and credited it to the Germans: "1,000 Americans bombers flew over North Germany today. Several of our towns are missings."

In WW III, with all the improvements in striking power, the term could very well be: "The enemy aimed a small missile at our territory today. Half of our continent is missing."

That's a happy thought, but could be true.

Walter E. Cook, resident of Florida by necessity, but whose heart remains in Black Mountain, the year-around, passed out copies of the Black Mountain News at a recent "North Carolina Day" celebration of the Miami Beach Lions club. According to "Cookie" and the club bulletin the day was a huge success.

Walter wrote in part:

"Thanks to you for helping to make North Carolina Day a success at the Miami Beach Lions club. The Black Mountain News did much to make the spot of Black Mountain on the map a little bigger."

Present for the meeting was our good friend and former editor of the Asheville Citizen, Don Shoemaker, now editor of the editorial page of the Miami Herald.

3 New Buildings Are Scheduled At Ridgecrest

Members of the Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly committee of the Baptist Sunday School board were on the campus Tuesday to inspect the property and to study the proposed sites of a new classroom building and a Camp Crestridge chapel and gymnasium.

Members of the committee are Loyd R. Simmons, Phoenix, Ariz.; O. K. Webb, Greenville, S. C.; A. R. Collins, Louisville, Ky.; C. R. Tomison, Houston, Tex.; J. Earl Mead, Dallas, Tex.; Bruce H. Price, Norfolk, Va.; and Kenneth M. Hayes, a North Carolinian.

The classroom building is scheduled to be completed by June 1, 1959. It will be built where Crystal Springs lodge now stands. The lodge, one of the oldest structures on the grounds, will be torn down, beginning September 1.

Plans for the building call for 20,000 square feet of floor space, or 24 rooms. It will eventually have a floor space of 30,000 square feet. An amphitheater with a seating capacity of 300 will be included in the structure. An overhead walkway will connect the auditorium with the second floor of the building.

Two buildings will be added to the Camp Crestridge plant. A $15,000 chapel, made possible by a donation from Louis T. Tenerelli of Delray Beach, Fla., and a $30,000 gymnasium will be ready for use next season.

OPEN HOUSE AT—

Open house, in which the president of the Fire association, J. A. Dougherty, and Chief L. A. Allen will participate with other volunteers and staff members, will give the public opportunity to observe improvements which a fund of more than $600 appropriated by the town, and volunteer contributions of $3 per year by a number of residents outside the township, have been able to achieve. These efforts are in line with the goal of the department and the association to raise standards of the local Fire department into a higher bracket, which would result in the lowering of fire insurance rates for residents of the area.

An invitation to attend is extended to people of Black Mountain and the adjacent area which the department serves, including Montreat, Blue Ridge, Ridgecrest, Swannanoa, Broad River and all others interested.

Items of interest which the public may inspect include the entire quarters and equipment of the department, including a two-way radio on the truck and also a telephone answering service which records details of incoming reports of all fires, and, in turn, relays these to fire-fighters at whatever point from which they call in to report for duty.

Also to be seen are new doors on the equipment room, installed by courtesy of Mr. Dougherty and the Black Mountain Lumber company, which also furnished paint for refinishing walls and ceilings of upstairs sleeping quarters where firemen remain on call at all times; and improvements also include new locker doors, new water heater; new show stall; paving of floor in truck room; new fluorescent lighting upstairs; sheets and pillow cases given by Collins Department store, and six bedspreads furnished by this company at cost; and six new beds furnished at cost by Tyson's. The new doors were made possible by funds raised among business men of the community.

Weather Clears For Tea and Tour at "Hilltop"

It rained and it thundered on Tuesday afternoon, the 12th of August. Mrs. William McMurray, Mrs. Roy Taylor, Mrs. James A. Crawford and Mrs. H. Rankin Miller all sat on the porch of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Howard Richardson's home, Hilltop. They looked down the valley at the clouds and talked about tea for which no party arrived. But the sun broke through and before long a car was heard. Mrs. Miller jumped up and went to her post of duty at the door where she saw to it that all the visitors wrote in the guest book.

The first group to come was from Ridgecrest, guests attending the Woman's Missionary Union there. They were welcomed by Mrs. William McMurray, president of the Black Mountain Woman's club. Mrs. Crawford, a former president of the Woman's club, showed them to the "Bodleian" downstairs, and they all prowled around and looked at some of the old magazines and books while ancestors gazed at them from the walls. The most interesting picture has just been acquired, that of a little girl of five painted on a board by a travelling artist, a piece of real Americana. She became the grandmother of Dr. Richardson.

Mrs. Roy Taylor was on hand to welcome juvenile court judges and their wives who were attending a conference at Blue Ridge. Judge William Hart, judge of the Juvenile court of Buncombe county is her brother-in-law. Many judges came and they were most enthusiastic about this part of the country. Dr. and Mrs. Richardson just buzzed around everywhere.

There was a good representation of Black Mountain people and Mrs. Bill Phillips brought a carful from the Monte Vista. Montreat representatives came, as usual. And so the clouds did not scare too many away. In fact there were 72 in all, and everyone seemed to have a good, informal time.
