In the absence of interim pastor, Chaplain Deyo Williams, Ridgecrest pulpit was supplied on Sunday by Rev. B. S. Hensley of Asheville. With John 3:16 as his morning text, unique development commanded the close attention of an appreciative audience. "What Will You Do With Jesus" was the subject of his evangelistic message in the evening.

Instead of worshipping in the church on Thanksgiving Day, the season will be observed on Wednesday evening in a special prayer and praise service led by Chaplain Williams. Preceding this, all church families are invited to bring dishes of food and join in the fellowship supper in the recreation hall at 6:30 p.m.

Meeting with Miss Edith Van Duzer and Mrs. B. S. Meeks on Tuesday p.m., 13 members of the local W. M. S. had a pleasant and profitable two hours in study of the W. M. U. Year Book. Miss Van Duzer gave the description and meaning of the emblem. This was followed by the singing of the hymn for the year, after which Mrs. W. O. Sutherland led devotions based on the hymn and the watchwords. With the president, Mrs. Charles Jolley, presiding, the adopted by-laws were examined and brought up to date. Then each officer undertook to discuss her individual duties as laid down in the year book. This led to the making of plans to reach jubilee goals and to better carry on all the work; vacancies in committees were filled; and each member felt she had learned more about the great organization as well as her own job. Aside from those mentioned above, others present were: Mrs. Edith Beam, Mrs. S. C. Gill, Mrs. Mayme Gough, Miss Corrie Hardin, Mrs. E. F. Hardin, Miss Mamie Meeks, Mrs. E. Y. Moore, Mrs. W. M. Pate, and Mrs. R. E. Truesdell.

Mrs. Paul Turner was hostess on Thursday evening to Business Women's circle. Devotions were
