What's Goin' . . . At Owen

By Nancy DuPuy

One hundred twenty-five persons attended the F.H.A. parent night at Owen High school, Thursday night, Dec. 4. A covered dish meal, which was delicious, was served in the school cafeteria. The theme of the program was "The History of the American Home-Maker Through the Ages. For decorations, the serving table was centered with red roses, the F.H.A. flower, and one history of the room. His played silhouettes of the costumes of women from 1621 to 1960.

The welcome was given by Marlene Pyatt, chapter president. A devotional was given by Anne Woodcock, and Dianne Nesbitt led the girls in the F.H.A. prayer song. Nancy DuPuy presented Mr. N. C. Shuford with an F.H.A. pin and honorary membership in the Owen chapter to show the girls' appreciation for his services to their club.

After the meal the parents and old members were entertained by the Freshmen girls who were being initiated into the club. They depicted the stages of American History by skit, songs, and dances. The eleven acts and girls who participated are as follows:

Act I, Pilgrims and Indians. Linda Lee Surratt, Fernie Ray, Alice Waddell, Nancy Strickland, Linda Surratt, Geneva Brotherton, Barbara Hall, Act II, Mr. and Mrs. Davey Crockett. Oliver Penland, Faye Fender and her hound dog. Act III, Colonial Cottolion. Jean Eller, Nellie Beck, Susie Tatham, Kay Wright, Libbie Nanney, and Lynda Smith. Act IV, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Davis. Judy Silvester, Anita Luther, Act V, Colored Slaves. Brenda Vess, Barbara Bradley, Barbara Page, Carol McKinney, Julia Smith, Myra Armstrong. Act VI, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rodgers. Margaret Rodgers, Brenda Bartlett. Act VII, Family group. Marie Worley, Barbara Morris, Act VIII, Flappers and Beaux. Carolyn Moore, Linda MaHaffey.

At the Church

Cold weather? Yes, but beautiful! And good congregation at church. Chaplain Deyo Williams' morning message on "The Prophet's Portrait" (Isaiah 53) was an excellent prelude to the observance of the Lord's Supper. In the evening he brought the second in a series of messages reviewing the world's Christian doctrines. The first was "Election and the Purpose of God." This was followed by "God—What Jesus Taught About Him." Throughout December he will continue this series at the evening services.

On Tuesday, Dec. 2, the Session of Prayer for Foreign Missions was observed by the W. M. S. in an all-day prayer meeting in the home of Mrs. Elbert Hardin. Nineteen women were present to unite hearts, minds, and voices in this cause for several hours, pausing briefly at mid-day for only very light refreshment.

A short business session was presided over by Mrs. Charles Jolley, after which Mrs. W. K. Weeks guided the prayer sessions. Needs of the far away places of the world were vividly brought to attention by visual aids of unusual nature. She was assisted in presenting these needs by Mrs. R. E. Truesdell and Mrs. B. S. Meeks. At intervals Mrs. W. O. Sutherland led brief devotions based on the day's theme, "Dear, Dear Savior," and now abideth HOPE. When the Lottie Moon offering was gathered at the close of the day, the treasurer discovered $555.00 had been given. The women hope this amount may be doubled before December ends.

Sunbeams met Tuesday afternoon of last week with the leader, Mrs. Ed Lakey. They observed a special program of prayer for Foreign Missions along with some stewardship stories on "Learning to Give" and "Sharing with Others." Attractive place cards, were fashioned during the handwork period. Jerry Biddix, Joyce Burgin, Patty and Judy Bradley, Buster Gray, Jack Tipton, and Teresa and Tommy Turner were the members present.

Christmas carols were sung as a closing feature. Glenda and James Lakey assisted their mother in serving refreshments.

Glenda Lakey, Martha Allison, Linda Bradley and Marie McMahon were the four members of Dorothy Lawton Jr. G. A., meeting with Mrs. Lillian Gallamore on Monday afternoon. A special program observing the Season of Prayer for Foreign Missions consumed most of the time, but plans were also laid for a visit next week to the Orthopedic hospital in order to present scrapbooks made by the girls.

Miss Mayme Meeks, counselor of Harriett Lemmon Jr. G. A., was hostess to the group on Monday. Attending were Linda Allison, Helen Johnson, Judy Pittman and Linda Skypes. They, too, held a special season of prayer and planned for their Lottie Moon offering to Foreign Missions.

Mrs. John May was hostess Monday evening to a meeting of Y. W. A. Present were Mrs. W. O. Sutherland, Mrs. James McMahan, Misses Delores Melton and Betty Rushing. Miss Rushing had charge of the prayer program.

Here and There At a family dinner in Hotel Goldsboro, Goldsboro, N. C., on Sunday, Dec. 7, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Cuthrell celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Details had not reached at this press time, but a large number of relatives attended the festivities. Their many friends here extend to Mr. and Mrs. Cuthrell good wishes for many more golden years together.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Burnett returned Sunday night from a three weeks' trip to points east and north. After visiting relatives in Norfolk, Va., and Salisbury, Md., they headed north for Vermont, spending Thanksgiving in Essex Junction with Mrs. Burnett's mother, Mrs. D. C. Gendron, and visiting other relatives in different parts of the state. Leaving Vermont they traveled to Stony Run Lodge in Pennsylvania for five days of hunting in the Peconos mountains. This has been an annual event for Mr. Burnett every year since 1942. On the journey home they stopped over the weekend to visit a brother-in-law, John Trotter and his son Haywood Trotter and family.

Miss Arvine Bell went on Monday to Raleigh where on that evening she and Raleigh Meredith Horse club, showing slides of horseback riding as done at Camp Crestridge for Girls. Mrs. Mary Edwards, instructor in the club and frequent visitor to Camp Crestridge, was hostess. Wayne Chastain, new manager of Boys' Camp at Ridgecrest, was also a speaker at this meeting. On Tuesday morning Miss Bell spoke to a PE class in Meredith college on camping.

Billy Gray and a classmate from Wingate college spent a day and night of the Thanksgiving holidays in the Cowherd house here and visited several friends in the community. Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Perry were dinner guests on Wednesday, Dec. 3, of the S. C. Gills and Mrs. Mayme Grubbs, in honor of Mr. Perry's birthday.

James P. Morgan, state secretary of Baptist Training Union, en route from his home in Raleigh to Nashville, Tenn., stopped Saturday for a visit with his aunt, Mrs. W. M. Pate and Mr. Pate. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Atkins of Greer, S. C., were Sunday afternoon visitors in "Hills of Home."

Perry McFalls and his father, George McFalls, long time employees of Ridgecrest Assembly, have moved from Old Port to the house near Ridgecrest church, formerly occupied by the J. H. Greenlees.

A double wedding of surprise and interest here, occurred in the Asheville court house last Friday evening when Justice of the Peace, A. J. Cressman performed a single ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Mayme Peek to Pvt. Robert E. Giles, and her twin sister, Miss Faye Peek, to D. Wayne Smiley. These young women are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Peek of Old Toll road. Both young men are citizens of the Emma community. Pvt. Giles is stationed at Ft. Bragg but is at present enjoying a furlough. Mr. Smiley is employed by the J. C. Penney Co. After a brief honeymoon trip to Gatlinburg both couples returned to Emma where they will make their homes.

Christmas has already come to Mrs. B. S. Meeks in the form of a family telephone call all the way from Bandung, Java. Dr. Spencer Meeks, his wife, his daughter Sandra, and son Barry, by means of

Juniors Write Thanksgiving Poems, Notes

The following Thanksgiving notes were written by Mrs. W. B. Pollard's Sunday school class at the Methodist church. The students are juniors and in the fifth grade.

Thanksgiving
We give thanks, O Lord, for Thy wondrous word;
We give thanks, O Lord, for Thy wondrous days;
We give thanks, O Lord, for Thy wondrous gifts;
We give thanks, O Lord, for all Thy wondrous things you have given us in our lives.
—Allen Styles.

We thank Thee for the sky so blue;
We thank Thee for the green grass too.
We thank Thee for our home so sweet;
We thank Thee for food we eat.
We thank Thee for the birds that sing;
We thank Thee, God, for everything.
—by Stephen Farley.

Thank you for the blue, blue sky;
Thank you for the food we eat.
Thank you for the little bees;
Thank you for the birds that sing.
Thank you for your only Begotten Son.
—by Coleman Wright.

We thank Thee for Thy gracious blessing,
For Thy wondrous Word,
For Thy loving kindness.
We thank Thee, O Lord.
—by Sheila Goodman.

We thank Thee for the skies so blue;
We thank Thee for the harvest, too.
We thank Thee for the flowers and grass;
We thank Thee for everything.
—by Alex Bowness.

Father we thank Thee:
For the rain and for the snow.
Father we thank Thee:
For our father and mother—
For Jesus.
Father we thank Thee:
For our homes and school;
For everything.
—by Linda Sams.

A Prayer of Thanks
We thank You for the food we eat,
And for every new friend we meet.
Thank You for the grass so green,
And for Jesus Christ who was once seen.
Thank you, God, for everything.
—by Ginger Wallin.

When Thanksgiving Is Here
Thank You for the sky so blue;
Thank You for the help you give us.
Thank You for the birds that sing;
Thank You for every little thing.
—by Donna Nanney.

Thank Thee for the blue, blue sky;
Thank Thee for the birds that fly.
Thank Thee for the food we eat;
Thank Thee for the water we drink.
Thank Thee for the birds that sing;
Thank Thee, God, for everything.
Thank Thee for the green, green grass;
Thank Thee for the food that lasts.
—by Philip Garland.

We thank Thee for the birds that sing;
We thank Thee, God, for everything.
We thank Thee for the animals that wander;
We thank Thee for the beautiful summer.

specially fitted earphones and mouth pieces, all joined in conversation across the miles of land and sea and brought joy to Mrs. Meeks and Miss Van Duzer.

Jr. Home & Civic Club Has Meeting

The Junior Home and Civic club met Tuesday, Nov. 18, at the S&W cafeteria for dinner and the regular monthly meeting. During the business meeting in one of the private dining rooms, Mrs. Stanley Nale was accepted into the club. The club agreed to fill and distribute 12 cheer baskets, give Christmas gifts to the WNC sanatorium and Caswell Training school, and also to put a toy in each of the cheer baskets. Mrs. Ralph Singleton was appointed 2nd vice-president and also to serve on the ways and means and telephone committees to replace a member who resigned.

Upon completion of the business meeting members adjourned to Bradford's Workshop where the owner, Mrs. Frank L. Bradford,

We thank Thee for our parents that are so good;
We thank Thee for the flowers and food.
—by Nancy Pollard.

Thank You, God
Thank You, God,
For the grass so green.
Thank You, God,
For the beautiful scenery.
Thank You, God,
For schools to learn to read.
Thank You, God,
For the Bible—so everyone can read it.
Thank You, God,
For Jesus Christ.
Thank You, God,
For every living thing.
—by Emily Glenn.

Thanksgiving Poem
We thank Thee, Father, for freedom to pray;
We thank Thee, Father, for the day.
We thank Thee, Father, for the rain;
We thank Thee, Father, for everything.
We thank Thee, Father, for the snow;
We thank Thee, Father, for what we know.
We thank Thee, Father, for the sleet;
We thank Thee, Father, for the meat.
Oh, Father, we thank Thee for everything.
—by Tommy Brandon.
