

SCOUT TROOP 25 HOLDS MEETING LAST MONDAY

Good attendance was reported at last Monday night's meeting of Troop 25, Boy Scouts, at which leaders and guests included R. C. Bowness, Jimmy Page, Sherman Schell and M. E. Head.

A wide attendance and enthusiastic participation in a hike to Greybeard last Sunday afternoon was reported, led by Rev. Kenneth Donald, Mr. Bowness and Earl Jolly.

Hopes are held for the troop to build a larger membership, and leaders said "good headway is being made in building membership" and that "we are looking forward to the time when a number of present Cub Scouts will move up to regular Scouting at the end of the month, as well as to the time when our Scouts will have a permanent meeting place when the current building program of 'Operation Youth' is finished and we then have a permanent youth center in the community.

Local Residents End Florida Tour

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Jurwitz of North Fork, have returned from a tour of Florida visiting many friends that they had not seen for some time and many points of interest. They spent the first night in Tallahassee at the Morgans', and are happy to report that Dr. William H. Morgan is recuperating nicely.

Their next stop was Orlando where they attended the Florida State Gideon convention and visited with their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Pierce. Sunday found them in St. Petersburg where they attended the famous Pasadena Methodist church. While there they visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bates and other friends and had dinner at the Wedgewood inn with Mrs. Grace Mertle. After visiting with friends at Bradenton they drove the Tamiami trail to Maimi where, with Claude Betts, they spent several days visiting many points of interest including Miami Beach, Key Biscayne, the Sea Aquarium and taking one day for a drive to Key West.

On the return trip, one night was spent with friends in Tampa and one with Rear Admiral and Mrs. G. C. Crawford in Oklawaha, where they have a beautiful winter home on a private lake.

Other points of interest visited were Silver Springs, the Bok Singing tower, the Boca Raton Bible conference grounds and the Riggall Brothers museum in Sarasota.

Coming into Georgia, they crossed the bridge over to St. Simons island to visit Epworth-By-the-Sea, a shrine built in honor of John and Charles Wesley and their coming to Georgia. The last point of interest was the Okefenokee Swamp, scene for the shooting of four movies.

THE CRYSTAL CHRIST

But thee, but thee, O Sovereign
Sect of Time,
But Thee, O poet's poet, wisdom's
tongue,
But Thee, O Man's best man, O
love's best love,
O perfect life in perfect labor writ,
O, all men's comrade servant, king
of priests,
What "If" or "yet," what mole,
what flaw, what lapse,
What real defect, or shadow of defect.
What rumor, battled by an enemy,
Of inference loose, what lack of grace,
Even in torture's grasp or sleep's
or death's,
Oh, what amiss may I forgive in Thee,
Jesus, Thou good Paragon, Thou Crystal Christ?"
—Sidney Lanier

In this poem, Lanier contrasts Christ with all the great and good of history—Shakespeare, Homer, Socrates, Dante, Milton, Emerson, Tennyson, etc.

In his "Ballad of the Trees and The Master"—"Into the woods my Master went", we see that he had learned the meaning of the words of Jesus, "if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me."

To Lanier, Christ was creator. He placed the Bible before all other books and Christ above all other personalities in history. In recommending books to be read, he placed the Bible first and Shakespeare next. He believed that the world's greatest need was Christ. By faith in Him, he wrote his greatest poem, "Sunrise". He dictated it to his wife when in Tryon, N. C., and when on his deathbed with a 104 degree temperature.

"But I fear not, nay I fear not the things to be done; I am strong with the strength of my Lord, The Sun". Fed. 3 is the anniversary of Lanier, born in 1842.

Chairman Poel's Corner Creative Writing Club, and one of the three members of the N.C.U.D.C. committee to make Lanier better known in the state; also, N. Y. sponsor of "Lanier for the Hall of Fame", N. Y. University.
