taken for the Mountain Orphanage. Music will be by the Montreat chorus. All in and near Dr. and Mrs. C. Grier Davis will be honored at a reception in the lobby of Assembly Inn. A cordial invitation is extended to all friends. The prayer meetings will not be held this Wednesday, but next week will be as usual. The executive board of the Women of the Church met in the home of Mrs. Karl Snyder on Tuesday, Nov. 24 at 4 p.m. Many visitors were in Montreat over the week end. The weather was perfect with a snap in the air to stir up energy but the sun was warm as Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Thomason and three children of Concord visited the Rev. and Mrs. S. C. Farrior over the week end. Mrs. M. H. Saunders was given a welcome in church as a guest over the week end of Carlisle, Pa., and her mother, Mrs. L. A. McCall of Florio, who is spending two weeks. The Rev. M. H. Saunders is speaking in the Independence Presbyterian church, Savannah, Ga., this week on behalf of World Missions, telling about his work in the Congo, Africa. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall of Winston-Salem spent the week end in their cottage, "The Cedar Chest". Paul Moore of Fort Jackson, S. C. was in Assembly Inn on a visit to his brother Marvin Moore this week end. Rev. and Mrs. F. M. Grissett are spending Thanksgiving with Mrs. Grissett's sister in Greenville, S. C. Their daughter who is working in Washington, D. C. will also be there. Mrs. Thomas Spence is in Richmond, Va., on a visit to her mother, Mrs. W. M. Holman, who is ill. The primary children of the Montreat church school with their teacher, Miss Margaret Hopper, and Mrs. Karl Snyder visited the shut-ins on Sunday afternoon. They sang songs and recited Bible verses for them. The children who came were Emily Snyder, Glenn Guy, Bonnie Guy, and Robbie Stubbs. Others in the class who did not get to come are Nancy Wilkerson, Franklin Graham, and Eric Snyder. Dr. and Mrs. Joe Wilkerson and children spent the week end in Woodleaf, N. C. with Mrs. Wilkerson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Watson. They will spend Thanksgiving with Dr. Wilkerson's aunt, Mrs. Forrest Smith in York, S. C. Dr. Wilkerson was guest speaker in the Woodleaf Presbyterian church on behalf of missions on Sunday.

THANKSGIVING DAY
There is no hearth so bleak and bare But heaven hath sent some blessings there. No table e'er so sparsely spread But that a grace should there be said. No life but knows some moment blest Of sweet contentment and of rest. No heart so cold but heaven above Hath touched it with the warmth of love. So count your blessings, one by one, At early morn and set of sun, And, like an incense, to the skies Your prayers of thankfulness shall rise.

Look for the love that heaven sends, The good that every soul intends; Thus you will learn the only way To keep a true Thanksgiving Day. —Author Unknown

THANKSGIVING
We thank Thee, O Lord, For the land Curving about and beyond us. We thank Thee For the rain Falling gently Over the waiting fields. We thank Thee For the seed in the soil, For bud along the bough, For the sunswet fruit in the long grass. We thank Thee, O Lord, That because of Thee Life is eternal. —C. L. Criner

O come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation! Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise! —Psalms 95:1-2

With thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. The Jewish background of this national American holiday is to be found in the festival of Sukkat. According to the Bible, this festival was observed in ancient Palestine — as it still is today wherever Jews live — as a holiday of thanksgiving to God for the season of ingathering. The early Americans harked back to the Biblical account and so made Thanksgiving profoundly religious, both in origin and manner of observance.

PARTY GIVEN FOR MR. AND MRS. CLARK

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark Jr., who were recently married, were entertained with a dinner Friday night, Nov. 20, at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. W. Perry Crouch, 333 Charlotte street, Asheville, with Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Etines, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Howell, Dr. and Mrs. G. Westbrook Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Corey, Jr., and Mrs. Paul Trueblood as hostesses.

Mrs. Clark is the former Miss Charlotte Knoefel of Black Mountain.

MRS. PENCE HOSTESS FOR CIRCLE MEETING

Mrs. L. L. Pence was hostess to Circle No. 3 of the Methodist church Tuesday night, Nov. 17. Miss Sarah Thompson was in charge of the worship service and program. She led the group in a discussion of The Ten Commandments. Each member participated. It was voted to send a Thanksgiving basket of food to a family in the community. After the program a sweet course was served. Those present were Miss Thompson, Mrs. George E. Moray, Mrs. Douglas Jones, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Mrs. Bess Atkins, Mrs. C. E. Keith, Mrs. Finley Stepp, Mrs. Fred Cook, and Mrs. J. M. Goodman, circle chairman.
