SHOPPE CREEK

SHOPPE CREEK
by Mrs. Thelma Buckner
(Dec. 31)

Christmas morning arrived with a light rain and temperature of 38 degrees. Mom and I were alone and the day slipped quietly by but the merry-making began on Dec. 23, and presented her with a fruit-basket from Berea Baptist church. They also presented one to Mrs. Laura Shope, Mrs. Shope and Mom are two shut-in members of Berea church.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Lucian Gambrell of Anderson, S. C. The Gambrells were once residents of Dennis street, Swannanoa, and were employed at Beacon Mfg. Co. They were wonderful neighbors and friends to all who knew them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Creamer of West Asheville announce the birth of a son, Daniel Glen, Dec. 26, at St. Joseph hospital.

Among our Sunday dinner guests were Mrs. Lena Cogdill and Mrs. L. W. Dillingham. Mrs. Cogdill is spending the winter with the Dillinghams on Lower Shope Creek.

Mom is still taking shots but they have been reduced to one a week.

The G. R. Creamer's received a television for Christmas. It was a gift from their daughter, Mrs. Millard Bartlett.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fuller and children and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gregg and children got together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Gregg, up per Shope Creek on New Year's Eve for a fish fry.

My sister, Pauline Ingle and her husband Henry spent New Year's Eve with us. She and I stayed up and heard the whistles blow, heralding the new year. My daughter, Maudie Moody, called at 12 midnight to say "Happy New Year, Mom."

Had my husband, Robert Buckner, lived, Jan. 1 would have been our 34th wedding anniversary.

Mom's visitors on Tuesday of last week were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Goode, Spindale; Mrs. J. E. Smith and daughter, Janice, and Barbara, East Galile, Fla.; Romie Elmore, Forest City; and Mrs. Millard Huntley, Oakley.

Mrs. Maxine Pruett and Pam of Swannanoa spent a week of the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Jennie Gregg of Shope Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hensley, Joe and Roy and Mrs. D. B. Whisenant of Dillingham circle, are home after spending part of the holidays in El Paso, Tex., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Covale. While there they visited in Old and

New Mexico and had a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Robinson and children of Swannanoa were our dinner guests on Saturday. Ray has been transferred from Oteen VA hospital to Cape Canaveral, Fla. He leaves here on Jan. 7 to resume his duties there. Mrs. Robinson and the children plan to join him in June.

On Sunday some of Mom's children took care of her and gave me the day off to visit my daughter and family, the Fred Moodys in Grovemont. Fred suffered an attack of angina last week, but was feeling better Sunday. Their other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Moody, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Moody and Brenda of Canton, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Dorato, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dorato, and Keith, Dot Redmond, Raymond Meeks and Oliver Moody.

The W.M.U. of Berea Baptist church will meet at the church on Wednesday evening at seven.

George E. Moray, executive secretary, Black Mountain Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber of Commerce is not organized to help any particular person or organization. As was stated in the beginning, it was organized to make Black Mountain a better place in which to live.

ing snack or coffee, an afternoon tea or snack and an evening snack. The steward took each of us to an ice box located conveniently near and told us to go there and help ourselves at any hour we wished. The captain laughed and said that he and the steward planned to fatten us up and charge $10 per pound for every pound we gain. They will collect and split the jack pot. Some such scheme must be a foot for I never saw more delectable food in such quantities—grilled New York Steak to order, baked Virginia ham with Mushroom sauce, roast turkey with fresh fruits and vegetables in abundance, and milk! How I enjoy the fresh milk! The captain said he kept his cows in the hold and expected the passengers to go down at 4 a.m. each morning and milk them. When we took on 12,000 tons of raw sugar we asked what they did with the cows for the milk is still in abundance. The first meal I had on board I ordered milk. A whole quart was placed beside my plate with a Chinese mess boy for keep filling my glass as the milk disappeared. I drank the whole quart. Since then a quart of good, cold milk is placed beside my plate at each meal, without ordering. Good thing our $250.00 we paid in Honolulu for passage to Galveston included everything.

We have plenty of room—two comfortable lounges, with TV and a library filled with interesting books, a writing room with stationary, etc., and plenty of comfortable deck chairs. We have plenty of decks to walk—the main deck, below us; the boat deck, where we are; the officers deck; the navigation deck and the flying bridge where we go for sun bathing and star gazing.

We left Honolulu on March 9, went up to Nawiliwili, on Kauai, where we took on more raw sugar. While this was being loaded the seven passengers went ashore, got a sight-seeing bus and a good guide, whose name was Kamuelakakupokipsalepeahu but we called him Sam for short. He wore very gray aloha shirt, a big straw hat—three feet across and turned up at the edges and a big high crown. He said it keeps the rain off as well as the sun. I should hope so! Sam is a native Hawaiian with a native accent, who has been a guide for 43 years. He kept us roaring with laughter the entire day

Happy New Year to each and every one and may it be a joyous one.

Mrs. Gertrude Howie, who broke her ankle two weeks ago, is still confined to her home but is doing very well at present.

The Rev. Joe Hawkins and family spent the holidays with his parents in South Carolina. J. B. Sawyer's daughters spent Christmas with him at his home on Bee Tree road.

Mrs. Frances Morgan of Longs Branch road who was rushed to the hospital Sunday morning at 4 o'clock, was resting very well at last report. Calvin Morgan and Herbert Howie spent Tuesday night with the C. M. Howies.

The Doyle Howies of Swannanoa had supper with the Herman Owenbys of Buckeye Cove road New Year's night.

Mrs. Gertrude Howie had quite a few visitors this past week. Among them were Mrs. Myrtle Hall, Mrs. Mamie Peterson, her daughter Ruth Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Howie, Mrs. Frances Morgan, Mrs. Alma Brooks, her niece Mildred, and daughter of Bee Tree road.
