Free Lecture On Christian Science Set

How the power of God set forth in the Bible brings peace and harmony will be the topic of a free lecture on Christian Science to be given here Tuesday, May 31 by Florence Middaugh of Los Angeles.

Miss Middaugh will speak in East ball room George Vanderbilt hotel, Asheville, at 8 p.m. under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Asheville. Her subject will be Christian Science: Its Promise and Fulfillment. The lecture is free, and local members have invited the public to attend.

A native of Colorado, Miss Middaugh is currently on a nationwide speaking tour as a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. Prior to entering the public practice of Christian Science healing, she was active in the musical profession. An authorized teacher of Christian Science, she has devoted her full time for a number of years to Christian Science activities.

NEWS from the CRAGMONT COMMUNITY

—By Lib Harper—
Phone NO 9-3028

Miss Precious Greenlee of Winston-Salem and Mrs. Dorothy Jones and Pat spent the week-end with Mrs. Grace Greenlee and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burgin and Mrs. Margaret Burgin attended the annual church reunion in Anderson, S. C., on Sunday.

Miss Patsy Daugherty spent the week-end in Morganton at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Avery.

Little Wendell Whiteside who weighed only three lbs. seven weeks ago will be coming home this week from Mission hospital. Wendell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Whiteside.

Friends here were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Ollie Daugherty in Springfield, N. J. Mrs. Daugherty had lived in this community for many years before moving to New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Daugherty attended the baccalaureate service at Allen High school Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Lizzie Wells and Mrs. Cora Stepp remain on the shut-in list, let us not forget to remember these two fine ladies with a visit or phone call.

We were all very happy to see Mrs. Inez Daugherty home from the hospital and doing so well.

Each day I have a small visitor little Bobby Lee Stafford, age 2, who stops in and gets his daily piece of gum. Bobby chats about the things he has seen around and about the Carver school, and its remarkable to know that some one so young observes and remembers the many things that happen each day.

Mrs. Mary Fortune and Marvin Hamilton, teachers of the junior boys and girls, received both banners for attendance and collection in Sunday school last Sunday.

I was real sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. H. C. Moore of Ridgecrest. I lived in Ridgecrest about 25 years and my family and I loved and considered Mrs. Moore as one of our great friends. Her memory will linger in each of our hearts for years to come.
