

Speech Weary
These tired old ears of mine and probably many others listened to so many speeches from the Democratic National Convention last week, are drooping pretty low by now. Thank goodness for the week of rest we will get before the Republican boys start to whoop it up.

Before "Senator" Greenwood who is one of our very fine representatives in the North Carolina House and also my boss) shoots me, let me say that I enjoyed most segments of the convention even if it was tiring. Quite a few surprises I never could quite guess. I never just why some speakers never drop the tone of their voices at the end of a sentence. It sorta leaves you hanging in mid-air.

There seemed to be quite a few people from North Carolina at Los Angeles, even some from this area.

With the rapid way, summer is passing, it won't be long until November and election time, and then the political issues will be settled for a while (or should we say decided).

Job Placement Program!
Shortly before the schools in this area recessed for the summer, a project was begun to find employment for those who were of age and desired to work during the summer vacation.

The group which instigated the Job Placement program is headed by Talmadge Burnette of the Swannanoa Insurance Agency.

Those seeking summer employment were asked to contact Mr. Burnette and state the type of work or job in which they were most suited for. In turn contacts would be made with prospective employees with the hope of placing the applicants.

This was a wonderful idea and approximately 35 to 40 applications were received.
As much as we hate to admit it, this was about as far as the project got. A few good jobs were found, but it was soon learned that most employers wanted either young around employees or the openings had been promised at least six months in advance.

Programs of this type have been very successful in other places and I see no reason why it couldn't be worked out in Swannanoa.

Our hat is off to Mr. Burnette and his cohorts for giving it the "college try" and we hope next year's venture will meet with more success.

Shope-Burnett Reunion
The Shope-Burnett reunion which has been an annual affair since 1907, will be held Sunday, July 24, at the Bee Tree Christian church.

Guest speaker will be Dr. Nelson Bell, noted missionary and physician from Montreat.

At the noon hour rolls around a picnic to end all picnics takes place with an enormous spread of food that would make a person on a diet run for his or her life.

Following the lunch will be an afternoon of music composed of quartets and singing groups from various parts of Western North Carolina. Among them will be the choir from Swannanoa First Baptist church with solos by Annette Hall and Mrs. Rachael Smith formerly of Swannanoa First Baptist and now of Mars Hill.

W. C. Shope is in charge of the entire program of music. Everyone is invited to come and bring a lunch.

Home Demonstration Club
Mrs. B. C. Burnette of the Swannanoa Home Demonstration club along with eight other women from various clubs in Buncombe county recently returned from Raleigh where they participated in the 1960 Farm-Home Week which was held at North Carolina State college.

Mrs. Burnette was honored at the meeting for placing third in the Green "N" Growing contest. Green "N" Growing is the official magazine of the State Home Demonstration clubs. Mrs. Burnette is the public relations chairman of the Swannanoa club which was first in sales of the magazine in Buncombe county and third in the state. Her prize for placing third was a blanket chest.

The HDC members, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Ray, county HDC agent, left Tuesday, July 12, and returned Friday, July 15.

While there the ladies stayed at Becton Hall and were served their meals and attended chapel each day on campus.

After classes the group was taken on a tour of Raleigh which included the museum, Dean Harris' home and farm, Meredith college, and tea at the Governor's mansion.

The officers club of the Carolina Shrine No. 1 will hold a business session and supper meeting Tuesday evening, August 2, at 6:00 p.m. in the green room of the S&W cafeteria. All officers are requested to attend. Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Burnette will serve as host and hostess.

Travels
Mr. and Mrs. Graham Allen and sons Dennis and Michael of Raleigh spent the latter part of last week in the cool climes of Western North Carolina as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Miller on North street. Mrs. Allen is Mr. Miller's sister.

Births
A new daughter was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Burnette of Bee Tree road. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Riddle are proud parents of a baby girl born last week at Mission hospital.

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. DeW. Kirkerson at Mission last week.
(Look out boys! the girls are getting ahead!)

Deaths
Mr. W. M. Garris of Newton, son-in-law of Mrs. Maude Oates of Edwards avenue, died last week in Newton. Mrs. Oates, Miss Vera Oates, Russell and Joe Oates, all of Swannanoa, attended the funeral which was held in Holy Cross Lutheran church.

Beacon Drops a Close One
Enka, the team that gave Beacon the least trouble of all during the first half of the season turned tiger in the first inning of the game last Wednesday at Nolan Field. The Rayonettes scored four runs off Jess Owensby before he could find his control or should I say "stuff." Beacon came back with three homeruns—one each by Jim Johnson, Guy Moore and Gary Edwards, but it wasn't quite enough. Too bad, no one was on when the blasts came!

BRIDGE WINNERS
Last Wednesday evening at the Monte Vista hotel winners in the Black Mountain Bridge club were: North-South, Bill Costner and Mrs. Stuart Miller; second, Mr. Johnson and Mrs. W. C. Field; third, Mrs. Claudia McGraw and Miss Martha Covin. East-West, Mr. Smith and Max Woodcock; second, Miss Mazie Buie and Miss Eaton; third, Miss Clara Scheunke and Douglas Jones.

NEW WIRING FACILITY—Carolina Power & Light Company officials inspect a new housewiring panel offered free of cost to CP&L residential customers using all-electric heating for their homes. H. G. Isley (right), CP&L general sales manager, explains the housewiring panel to J. W. Hunter (left), transmission and distribution engineer, and H. G. Hicks, CP&L residential and rural sales manager. This 200-amp outside service entrance equipment will accommodate six 240-volt circuit breakers. The circuit breakers are the only equipment required to be purchased by the customer. The offer represents a $100 saving for the all-electric homeowner, Isley said.

Dr. R. Burhans To Be Speaker

Dr. Rollin S. Burhans, president of Greater Louisville (Ky.) College, will be the principal speaker for the last of three Southern Baptist Training Union Leadership Assemblies opening Thursday, July 21, at Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly.

A native of Missouri, Dr. Burhans is a graduate of Southwest Baptist college, Boonville, Mo.; William Jewell college, Liberty, Mo.; and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky. He has served pastorates in Kentucky and Virginia, having served as pastor of Crescent Hill Baptist church, Louisville, Ky., for 14 years prior to assuming his present position.

Conducting the campfire services immediately following the worship period each evening will be Dr. Joe Davis Heacock, professor of education administration, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Tex.

Music for the week will be under the direction of Joseph O. Stroud, secretary of the department of Church Music, North Carolina Baptist Convention, Raleigh.

On Saturday evening finals of the Southern Baptist Intermediate Sword Drill and Speakers' Tournament will be held. State winners from Arkansas, District of Columbia, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio, Tennessee, and Texas will participate in the Sword Drill while winners from Arkansas, District of Columbia, Georgia, Michigan, Ohio, South Carolina, and Texas will compete in the Speakers' Tournament.

Approximately 3500 persons are expected to attend the conference which will continue through Wednesday, July 27.

AND SOCIAL SECURITY

By D. C. Nichols
Field Representative

We of the Social Security Administration often hear this question asked: "Can I expect to retire comfortably on my social security benefits alone?"

The answer is—no. Social security is intended simply as a minimum basic benefit, or "floor," which will prevent utter destitution and want.

Looked at another way, social security is a "foundation" on which a worker or self-employed person can strive to build an adequate "house of security" for himself and family. On this basic foundation he can build for the future with any private insurance, savings, investments, or possibly any other retirement income which he can provide for himself and family.

In the tourist season many employees, especially young workers, will be entering the labor market for the first time. They therefore will for the first time be eligible for social security protective coverage.

Almost all employment is now covered by social security law. Employees are required to have social security account numbers, and since their employers must deduct the social security tax even though certain employees may work for only a short time (even a part of one day)—and even if there should be only one employee, or if that one should be on a part-time basis—it is necessary that every worker show his employer his social security card when he first starts on the job. The employer should copy the name and account number of each employee just as they appear on the social security card—to enter later on the quarterly tax returns, along with the wages paid during the quarter.

If a worker has lost his card he should promptly apply for a duplicate card (with the same account number). If an employee's name has been changed, she should without delay have the name change recorded in the social security accounting records.

We of the Social Security Administration have reason to believe that some people made eligible by the recent Amendments may not yet have come in to claim their benefits.

To be eligible for monthly benefits, it is no longer required that a wife have been married 3 years to her entitled husband. If—in the months before her marriage to him—she was entitled to a widow's, a parent's or a disabled adult child's benefit (or was eligible for such a benefit, except that she need not have reached retirement age—62 for women).

Also, the wife of a man entitled to disability insurance benefits may qualify for wife's benefits under the same conditions as if her husband were entitled to an old-age (retirement) insurance benefit and a dependent husband, or dependent widower, of a disabled woman worker may qualify for monthly payments in the same way.

Can you think of a safer way to save?

United States of America.

Their value can't decrease—it can only go up. At maturity you get 1/2 more than you paid for them. And every purchase is recorded—your Bonds are easy to replace if they're lost, stolen or destroyed.

What 63c a day will do

Just 63¢ a day will buy an $18.75 Bond every month worth $25.00 at maturity. If you keep it up for forty months, you'll have a stack of Bonds worth $1000 to maturity. And that $1000 will have cost you only $750—in easy installments.

Some advantages to think about

You can save automatically with the Payroll Savings Plan. Tell your company how much to set aside from your pay for Bonds. This way you won't forget to save and your savings will add up automatically.

You now get 3 1/4% interest, to maturity. This new rate began June 1, 1959. It makes your Bond money grow faster. Series E Bonds now mature 14 months earlier than
