young men is to be highly commended for the many good deeds he is doing.
He is Marvin Hamilton, deacon, Sunday school teacher, church treasurer, and employee at Beacon Manufacturing Co. For the past two years he has taken time from his busy schedule to aid Stella Copeland, an elderly blind woman in the Lytle Cove section. Stella lost her sight several years ago, and cannot get to the spring for water, so after work each day we see Marvin with two large pails carrying fresh water and helping her in so many other ways.
Marvin also takes great interest in our young people. Each Saturday afternoon he gets his truck and drives about in the community getting children to play ball over in the Brookside area. These children enjoy the Saturday ball games so much that we find them getting their chores early so that they are ready when Marvin comes around.
Another good doer is Tom Daugherty who is especially interested in our smaller children. Tom and his wife Margaret don't have children of their own but have adopted a number of children in this community.

It is known of Tom to shop each week for an assortment of cookies to fill the large jar for children that stop in daily. Tom lives high on the hill at Hill Crest street, and many afternoons we see Tom and the children on the lawn having cookies and milk and chatting. About the events of the day, the little girl remarked: Oh! the good ole cookie jar in the world! Other children affectionately call Tom's house, "The Cookie House."

Tom sees to it that each child has clean hands, and that they must have good manners before receiving cookies each day. In talking with Tom I learned that having the children was the high light of his day. He has so often stated that it takes such a little to make a child happy, and what wonderful blessings he receives in return. We're happy to have folks like Tom and Marvin in our community.
