Beacon Youth Baseball
Unable to procure the names of the managers and coaches of the teams.
Almost any day of the week, (except Sunday of course) a young boy can be seen, proudly wearing a baseball uniform of the Beacon Youth teams. This is a typical sight during the summer months in Swannanoa and it really gives you a good feeling to know that these boys have a chance to play baseball under the guidance of someone who can teach them the correct way to play.

This Second Sunday School week has been wonderful as well as the first was. The attendance has been beyond 3,000 in each one. Just a few years ago we were fortunate to have as many as 1,200. I have always felt that the Sunday School weeks do as much or more to forward the whole church program than any weeks we have. Three of our people are studying this week for better teaching and organization. Mrs. E. F. Hardin and Mrs. John May are taking the work relating to Intermediate. John May, our Sunday School Superintendent elect, is taking the work relating to efficiency in his field. The workers of our church have the greatest opportunity in the South to study here at this fountain head of efficiency, information and inspiration along all lines of our work. Many as many as 1,200 have taken advantage of this opportunity in the past and we hope there will be many more in the years past. As we see people come here from more than a thousand miles away, we covet for all our members this interest.

It was good to have the Pates from Black Mountain in our services Sunday. Mr. Pate seems much improved. Nancy Pryor and Dean left for Dallas, Texas, Friday morning. They left Patty and Elaine to stay with Mr. and Mrs. Willis and until the last week when Dean's head Secretary will be here and take them back to Dallas. Having the children here surely eased the pain of their going for me.

On Sunday Patty and Elaine went with grandmother and granddaddy Willis to the Willis reunion in Greenville, S. C. returning on Monday morning. After spending the night with Mrs. Willis' sister in Greenville. A great host of the Willis clan from North and South Carolina came to Greenville for this happy event.

We have not mentioned in this column a little new-comer to our village. Her name is Wendy Kay Chastain, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chastain. We surely give her a warm welcome among us and hope to see her when the brick fall days come upon us. Her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Esther T. Fenn came all the way from Jacksonville Fla., to see this little grand daughter. Visitors in the R. H. Stevens home have been Mr. and Mrs. Scott and son Donald from Bradenton Fla., Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Allen from Bogaloussa, Louisiana. Thursday of last week Mrs. Ione Mercer of Greenville N. C. and Columbia S. C. was a visitor at "Hills of Home". Dinner guests of the Hardins on Thursday were Rev. and Mrs. R. P. Lamb from Grier S. C. Other guests through the week were Mrs. Jessie C. Flynn, Mrs. W. H. Farnsworth, Greenville S. C. Mrs. Herbert Blessed is the man whose watch keeps church time as well as business time. Blessed is the man who has the grace to leave a critical spirit on the sidewalk when he comes to the church. Blessed is the man who loves the church with his pocketbook as well as with his heart. Blessed is the church whose officers are not pessimistic. Blessed is the man who is faithful on a committee. Blessed is the man who loves his own church enough to praise it.

First Presbyterian Church Bible School was held last week at the church. Those teaching and assisting were as follows: The Kindergarten Department was taught by Mrs. George Frink and Mrs. Robert Bucy. The Primary dept. was taught by Mrs. G. B. Talbot, Mrs. A. B. Whitt, and Miss Patti Bird Talbot. The Junior dept. was taught by Mrs. Robert Davidson, and Mrs. Frank Huggins. The Pioneer dept. was taught by the Pastor, Rev. G. B. Talbot.

The total enrollment was 46. The average attendance 44, with 27 having perfect attendance. At the close of the morning worship service last Sunday, the congregation presented Rev. and Mrs. Talbot with a beautiful silver service in honor of their eight anniversary with the First Presbyterian Church, and also their 25th Wedding Anniversary. Circles at the church met with the following: Afternoon Circle 1 met at the home of Mrs. Breman McInturf. Afternoon Circle 2 met at the home of Mrs. A. B. Whitt. Evening Circle 1 held their annual picnic at the home of Mrs. J. L. Connelly. Evening Circle 2 having their annual picnic at the home of Mrs. W. H. McMurray, Jr.

Wade H. Boggs, and Dr. W. T. Thompson.

Speaking Sunday will be two famous speakers, George MacPherson Docherty, Washington, D. C., and Gordon Powell, Sydney, Australia. Dr. Docherty is minister of the New York Presbyterian Church and author of "One Way of Living". Gordon Powell comes all the way from Sydney, Australia, for the Inauguration and Convocation and will remain to be speaker for the 1960 Bible Conference. Mr. Powell is minister of the well-known St. Stephens Presbyterian church, known for conducting the largest mid-week televised service in the world. The 1953 Moderator of General Assembly, Francis Wilson Price, will also speak Sunday. He is now director of Missionary Research Library in New York, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allison have moved into one of Mrs. Pearl Perkins' apartments for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Thomas, their son Dewey, and his son, Dewey went to Piney Grove Church, down the mountain near Old Fort Sunday for their Memorial Day celebration. Miss Mabel Starnes, who teaches Bible at Carson-Newman College in Tenn., spent a while with the Jollays last week.

Mr. Sam C. Gill has not been well for two weeks. Mrs. Gill has so much energy that she forgets she is not 25 any more. Mr. Gill says "She will overdo". We will be glad when she can be back with us at church.

Mrs. E. E. Brown's niece, Mrs. W. L. Kelly from Savannah Georgia, spent Sunday with the Browns. In the afternoon they packed a picnic supper and went out over the hills. Mrs. E. E. Alexander has been in St. Louis, Mo. visiting an aging aunt.

Mrs. Lena Barger is still in Mission Hospital, but is making some improvement. Mr. and Mrs. John Ledford, Littlefield, N. C. and Mrs. Eddie Gill of Swannanoa were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wells Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Watson of Raleigh, were week end guests of his sister Mrs. William E. Brant, on Bowers Ave.

Wednesday evening at 6:30 at the church, the monthly Workers Council will be held. This is a covered dish supper. There will be some very important matters to discuss. Monthly business meeting and prayer meeting will follow.

The Younger Women's Circle of the W. M. S. will meet at the Girls' Camp on Thursday evening at 7:30. Each member is to bring a picnic supper.

When Mr. Larsen was in May he visited Baptist work here. At one of the missions he met a student pastor, Nilo Dominguez. He spoke briefly at our services on Sunday. He is a student at our Baptist Seminary in Havana, and is taking Social Studies at the University of Havana. He is attending the Assembly this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Leonard are in their summer home here. Mr. Sidney Morris was taken to Raleigh last week for an operation at Rex Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Morris are here for the summer as they have been for many years. They went to Raleigh for the operation to be near their only child Mrs. John Lewis whose husband is pastor of the First Baptist Church in Raleigh.

Miss Mary Pressly and Miss Bessie Smith from Louisville Ky. have sold their home to a Mr. Howard who is a school man in Jacksonville Fla. This is the end of another era. The Smiths have been coming to Ridgecrest for many years. They say this does not mean that they will not come any more; but they will be relieved of the responsibility of keeping up a home.

DR. C. GRIER DAVIS—

of the Highland Park Presbyterian church, Dallas, Texas. Also speaking Friday on "The Church as a World Fellowship" will be Dr. E. T. Thompson, professor of Church History, Union seminary, Richmond, Va., and editor of the Presbyterian Outlook.

Saturday morning speakers will consist of J. R. McCain, president Emeritus, Agnes Scott college, Decatur, Ga., who will speak on "The Stewardship of the Church". To speak on the subject "A Layman Looks at Montreat", will be Philip Howerton, ruling elder of the First Presbyterian church, Charlotte, and president of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co.

John Rood Cunningham, 1947 moderator and former president of Davidson college, will speak Saturday evening on "Montreat's Place in the Church of the Future". The remaining part of Saturday will be given to the Inauguration of Dr. Davis. Marion A. Boggs, moderator of General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church U. S. 1960, will charge the president. Dr. Davis will then offer his acceptance.

Former moderators present for this service will be: Dr. William Crow, Dr. J. B. Green, Honorable W. E. Price, Dr.
