MOUNTAIN MUSINGS

good food spiced with conversation, singing Will There Be Any Stars In My Crown, looking at the flowers and wending our way home in the eventide. Ada had a little ritual that lingers in my mind. She would draw a glass of water from the spigot in the kitchen saying, 'Have some good water; this comes straight from home.'

What happened to all those things I planned to do this summer? Congratulations to Tim Spiro for winning the 440 for Camp Rockmont in the recent V. A. track meet.

Thanks for the wedding invitation, Brenda Perkins. I wish you much happiness. (Don't forget your sociology!) Those "roasting-ears" were the best ever, Paul Patton. Thanks again.

Vacation-it's gives church-its a bad time at this time of year.

Old Friends Old friends never die, nor do they fade away. The sweetness of their presence is in our hearts today.

A blessing beginning here on earth; known in Heaven too. It shall be no less than heavenly when friendships we renew.
