He has figured out (with a bit of help) that his $5 a month, plus the dividends added by the Black Mountain office, will in a year total a big $61.30.

JUST NOW, his goal is a vacation trip in 1961. Some day, though, having tasted the fruits of thrift, he will be the man with ready cash to buy his home, his business or something else worthwhile.

A New Image of Thrift

Mrs. Vivian Ackerman had looked into her mirror hundreds of times since she was a little girl, but this was the first time she had seen the image of "Mrs. United States Savings Bonds of 1961." The Tucson, Arizona, housewife won the coveted title over 52 competitors in the "Mrs. America" finals at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., last week. As the Treasury's leading women's volunteer during the next 12 months, she will spend part of her time touring the country in the promotion of Savings Bonds and Savings Stamps. The attractive brunette is the mother of three children. Her husband, Harry, is County Attorney for Pima County, Arizona. Mrs. Ackerman succeeds Mrs. Jean Lemons of Wichita, Kansas, "Mrs. U. S. Savings Bonds of 1960."

THE BEACON LIGHT OF THE UNIVERSE IS TO BE FOUND IN DIVINE LOVE

The Bible is coming into its own. More and more people are reading it. The book stores in New York City and Chicago are now rationing the selling of the Bible as the demand for copies exceeds the supplies.

Open thou thine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of Thy law.
