The Silver Reunion Held Sunday In Old Fort
The annual Silver reunion was held at the Community Center in Old Fort this past Sunday. Despite weather conditions in this area 150 persons belonging to the Silver families and their friends, met for a delicious picnic lunch and a gab-fest.
They gathered from Tennessee, Virginia, South Carolina, and from towns and cities throughout North Carolina; beginning with Hendersonville, Rock, Asheville, Sylva, Black Mountain, Old Fort, Morganton and as far west as Winston-Salem.
The business session was conducted by Lee Silver of Morganton and the devotional was offered by the Rev. Marvin Silver of Jefferson City, Tenn.
Plans were made for the reunion to be held in Old Fort each year.

Old Fort PTA Officers Meet
The Old Fort PTA officers and committee chairmen met at the Old Fort High school and made plans for the coming year and talked of raising material for the audiology program.
Those attending were: Harold Walker, president, Ed Hogan, P. W. Greer, Mrs. Bill Early, Mrs. Robert Willis, Mrs. Grady McCauley, and Mrs. Duane Jones.
The Men's Bible Class
