Morton, of Glenview, Ky., National GOP chairman, will be the featured speaker at a fund-raising dinner to be held at the George Vanderbilt hotel on Friday, Sept. 16 at 7:00 in the evening.

LECTURES ASKED FOR REFERENCES

Mrs. Anne K. Sharp, chairman of the Poet's Corner for the local paper, a fluent writer and lecturer, has been requested by the Atlanta Reference Library to make available for their files the lectures on "The Part of the Cherokees played in the Confederacy during the War Between the States, and Some Famous Cherokees." These are also in file in the junior colleges of N. C. by request of the presidents and deans who heard Mrs. Sharp give the lectures before the joint sessions of the N. C. Literary and Historical Society and the Western N. C. Literary and Historical Society. The Orlando, Fla. Public Library also has them for references.

Front page headlines: Reporter Gives Vivid Account of Accident.

Have you ever been the first to arrive at the scene of a serious automobile accident? ... one upon the other ... mangled and bleeding with cuts, abrasions and multiple fractures of bones; still alive, moaning with extreme pain, but completely helpless ... unable to shift the weight of their own crumpled bodies as much as one inch from their suffering loved ones? Well, we did—last Saturday afternoon, on highway 70, about half-way between Black Mountain and Asheville. It was the product of a head-on collision between two cars. It left an impression on us that will last forever ... an automobile is a lethal weapon and must be handled accordingly! It makes us shudder to think that it might have been us, or ... it could have been you!

The Women of the Montreat church will meet on Tuesday, Sept. 20 at 4 p.m. in the Green room of the Assembly Inn. This is the last meeting of the year under the new schedule, according to the new calendar, next year begins with October. All officers will give a yearly report and the new officers will be installed. Mrs. Harold Coburn will give the devotion which will be on Romans 12. This is the memory work for the year and it is hoped that all have memorized it.

The worship service of the Montreat church was held in Gaither Chapel on Sunday at 11 a.m. Dr. A. F. Fogartie preached on "The Enduring Foundation." Many visitors are with us still and we enjoy having others come in for the week-end.

The college is beginning for the fall session and the students are coming in. Some old and some new students are arriving. We give them all a glad welcome.

The Wednesday prayer meeting has been changed from 4 to 6:30 in the Assembly Inn and at 7:15 p.m. in Gaither Chapel.

Have you ever rushed down a highway embankment to find an overturned sedan, crumpled like an accordion, the smell of hot rubber still strong in the air ... the wheels crazily pawing at the sky? Have you ever hurried an embankment age would greet your eyes while at the same time, through your mind raced the elements of Army First Aid Training ... "stop the bleeding ... be careful of moving folks with fractured bones ... treat them for shock ... And have you ever searched through a mangled automobile, wondering whether you'd find one human or six ... whether they'd be dead or alive? And have you ever experienced the shock of seeing a grey-haired mother, her married son, his wife and their three year old boy, all grotesquely wedged in the back end of the car ... one upon the other ... mangled and bleeding with cuts, abrasions and multiple fractures of bones; still alive, moaning with extreme pain, but completely helpless ... unable to shift the weight of their own crumpled bodies as much as one inch from their suffering loved ones? Well, we did—last Saturday afternoon, on highway 70, about half-way between Black Mountain and Asheville. It was the product of a head-on collision between two cars. It left an impression on us that will last forever ... an automobile is a lethal weapon and must be handled accordingly! It makes us shudder to think that it might have been us, or ... it could have been you!

Ed. note: When two automobiles collided head-on on the Asheville highway Saturday afternoon, George Vitas, U. S. forest ranger for the Mount Mitchell District, Pisgah National Forest, was first on the scene. Finding the injured wedged in the back end of their car, each helpless and mangled, is very vividly described in the story which Mr. Vitas wrote a few hours after the accident.

Attend Your Church Regularly!

START ARIGHT, AND YOU WILL END ARIGHT.

What kind of a life shall yours be? As no two watches run alike, so no two people think alike. They differ in many things they do, but the best start the young man and the young woman can make is to turn their hearts to the great truths to be found in the Bible. Remember that the Good Book does not deprive you of a single thing that is worth while. It doesn't ask you to give up any part of that which is real and permanent. Coming down through the ages, we see young men who later achieved greatness, build not upon the sands of time, but upon the wise words of the Sacred Writing.
