

MONTREAT

Miss Julia Stokes

The regular monthly business and literary meeting of the Tea & Topic club was held on Monday, Sept. 12, at the home of the president, Mrs. Loeman, with 12 members present.

The revised by-laws were read and approved. As a matter of interest to members, Mrs. Tyson read a list of the charter members of the club; also that the club's birthday was October 1936.

Programs for the coming year were discussed and by the next business meeting, each member will have chosen to book or play she wishes to review as her literary part of the program, in the month of choice.

The new officers, unanimously voted upon, for the year 1960-1961 are: president, Mrs. A. F. Tyson, Jr.; program chairman, Mrs. W. D. Wright; secretary, Mrs. S. S. Cooley; treasurer, Mrs. Max Woodcock; book monitor, Mrs. Gordon Greenwood; parliamentarian, Mrs. Roy A. Taylor.

Mrs. Cooley, president of the Civic Council, gave out copies of a report of work accomplished by Operation Youth, Inc., during the past year; also pledge cards for the drive for funds in Sept. This drive is necessary since the recreational program no longer receives any financial help from the United Fund. Incidentally, the Tea & Topic club went on record as recommending no activities on week nights during the school year.

The dates of the club's usual fall rummage sale will be Oct. 7 and 8, and Oct. 14 and 15. Place to be announced later.

The last order or business was the choosing by the members of the dates they wish to give their literary programs; also the month they wish to

The afternoon circles of the Women of the Montreat church met on Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. Circle No. 1, Mrs. Nelson Bell, chairman, met with Mrs. Bell on Assembly drive.

The Bible study was led by Miss Margaret Hopper. Refreshments were served before the meeting to Mrs. C. Grier Davis, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. Hopper, Miss Margaret Pinner, Mrs. Bertha Bentley, Mrs. M. C. Wood, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. M. C. Sherry, Mrs. George Sells, Miss Winnie Cox, and Mrs. James I. Paisley.

Circle No. 2, Mrs. Joe Wilkerson, chairman, met with Mrs. Thomas Spence on Virginia road. The Bible study was led by Mrs. Collins Lee. Refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mrs. C. O. Crowell, Mrs. Pearl Jones, Mrs. W. A. Ross, Miss Grace Hardie, Mrs. W. J. Gammon, and Mrs. Lee.

Circle No. 3, Mrs. Noyes Wilson, chairman, met in the home of Mrs. Benjamin Murph on Virginia road. Miss Elizabeth Woodhouse held a short business session. Prayer was given by Mrs. C. C. Anderson. The Bible study was led by Mrs. Joseph Hopper. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Murph to Miss Winifred Wood, Miss Elizabeth Woodhouse, Miss Florence Hildre, Mrs. C. Farrior, Mrs. C. C. Anderson, Mrs. Marion Corbett, Mrs. Joseph Hopper, Mrs. R. C. Pack, Miss Katherine Wilson, Miss Julia Stokes, Mrs. Francis Wily, and Mrs. F. A. Fogartie.

A wedding of interest is that of Miss Mary Lee McMaster, daughter of Mrs. Samuel Buchanan McMaster of Columbia, S. C., and of Kentucky road, Montreat, and Dennis Roland Green of Windber, Pa., and Fort Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Green of Widber, Pa. The wedding took place in the home of the bride in Columbia. The Rev. Claude McIntosh officiated at the double ring ceremony. A reception was held after the ceremony after which the couple left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., and Pennsylvania.

The bride attended Flora Macdonald college, Red Springs. She has been primary counselor in Montreat summer clubs for the past two summers. The bridegroom is private first class in the U. S. Army and has been stationed at Fort Jackson for the past year. He will leave shortly for 15 months duty in Europe, where he will do special work in electronics. Mrs. A. McLeod and Miss Mary Stewart McLeod of Bartow, Fla., and Montreat were among the out of town guests at the wedding.

The morning worship service was held in Gaither Chapel on Sunday at 11 a.m. The pastor, Dr. A. F. Fogartie, preached on "Three Timeless Questions." A newly formed chorus of the college students led by Allan Guy led the music. Reese Fowler one of the new college students was at the organ.

The first meeting of college vespers was held at 7:15 in Gaither Chapel. The officers of the Student Christian Association were installed at this service.

The Prayer and Study classes meet on Wednesday at 3:30 in the Green Room of the Assembly Inn and at 7:15 p.m. in Gaither Chapel. Everyone is invited to one of these services.

The new college faculty and students were welcomed at the church service. On Friday night at 8 p.m. a reception was held in the Assembly Inn for the college student body. Friends of the college in Montreat and near by communities were invited. Members of the college faculty were in the receiving line. Some of the former college faculty members were also present to greet the guests.

Some 50 members of the Pioneer Young People of the Selwyn Avenue Presbyterian church, Charlotte, held a retreat in Assembly Inn over the week-end. Much excitement was caused by some four of the young people who got separated from the others in taking a hike on Lookout. Many kind friends in Black Mountain and in near by communities joined in the search. These lost ones were good scouts and had found shelter under a rock. They were not as wet as those in the searching party.

Miss Louise Simpson of Jacksonville, Fla., spent the week-end in the Simpson cottage, "Stoneybrook."

Miss Elizabeth Sloan had as guests this past week, Mrs. F. L. Marshall and Donald Sloan both of Charlotte. She returned to Charlotte with them and spent a few days.

Mrs. Mason Lillard of Elkin is visiting her cousin, Mrs. R. C. Anderson.

Mrs. Carnie Fore of Charlotte visited Miss Alice Hardie last week. Miss Hardie returned with her and spent a few days in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wily were in their cottage on Virginia road last week for a week's stay.

Mrs. James T. Munds of Tampa, and Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Armstrong of Raleigh are on a visit to Miss Grace Hardie for this month.

Miss Maude Vinson of Davidson is spending a few days with Commander and Mrs. Fred K. Elder. The Misses Jean and Edith Tait are holding open house on Thursday to honor their sisters who are their guests for this month.

Miss Julia Walker who has just retired from her Mountain Mission work is spending a few weeks in the Lord Apartments.

The Garden club will hold the first meeting of the season on Friday, Oct. 6, at 3:30 in the Mansie with the vice president, Mrs. A. F. Fogartie.

Mrs. Samuel Woods and Don Woods drove to Norfolk this past week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Sam Woods, Jr., and family.

- Attend Your Church Regularly! -

"SUFFER LITTLE CHILDREN TO COME UNTO ME"

"As The Twig is Bent"

You've often heard the age-old expression, "As the twig is bent, the tree's inclined." No more truthful sentence was ever uttered. The thoughts and deeds of every man and woman will invariably reflect in some way the training he or she received in youth. That is why parents, now as always, have such a grave responsibility in their children's tender and adolescent years. It is a proven fact that an individual's character and outlook on life as a whole is formed during these years. No well thinking parents will intentionally let their children be led astray by the many evil forces at work in the world today. However, unintentional negligence can in many cases do the job as quickly and as thoroughly. We urge you, the parents of these youngsters whose future is at stake, not to neglect their spiritual lives. Attend Sunday School and Church this Sunday and every Sunday and take them along with you.
