OWEN HIGH BAND Supporters of Owen High school were proud and thrilled two weeks ago when Woodfin C. Rhodes, director, led the band onto the field prior to the North Buncombe game decked out in the new uniforms. They had been on order for many months but the factory could not ship sooner because of the great number of orders received during the spring and summer.

The new uniforms are beautiful and the band, always a snappy and welldrilled outfit, looks as if they had just stepped out of a hand box. The enthusiastic reception from the large omecoming crowd showed that the home fans recognized class when they saw

Warhorses Play Brevard Here Friday

Supporters of the Owen High school 1960 Warhorses had hopes today that Coach Howard Barnwell's charges might take a good healthy kick at the dope bucket and pull an upset in one of the two remaining games on their schedule.

PLEASE SEND IN CLUB REPORTS IMMEDIATELY

The NEWS would like to vices. request those who are responsible for reporting from their clubs, to please send the information to this office as soon as possible following the meetings. In ington 25, D. C. this way, desirable space may be reserved for the club activities, otherwise it may arrive too late and be omitted.

When such happens, the news is stale by the following week and less interesting to all readers.

Publicity chairmen will help the News staff very much if they will make it a habit to send or bring in their reports as soon as the event is over and not wait until Tuesday noon of the following week when the office force may be tearing their hair trying to find space for the news they already have.

The Tuesday noon deadline is for affairs that happen Monday night or Tuesday morning. The News force goes to work on the paper for the week early Monday morning and quite frequently Friday of the week before.

Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.
