

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

FAIR TREATMENT

Dear Editor:

I hope that you will find the space in your "letter columns" to publish this letter since I feel many of your readers may be interested to know how I as one candidate feel in regards to the treatment given to one candidate by your paper.

I admire you for the fair way you have reported all the news concerning my campaign and I feel that no newspaper could have been fairer in reporting news about Congressional candidates on both tickets than has your paper.

In your news coverage you have not only been fair you have also been one hundred percent impartial and I want to go on record to state that I admire your paper for this attitude.

Kindest regards,
Sincerely,
—Heinz Rollman.

MONTREAT

Miss Julia Stokes

The executive board of the Women of the Church met on Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. in the green room of the Assembly Inn. The president, Mrs. W. Frank McElroy, was in charge. NEWS from the CRAGMONT COMMUNITY

—By Lib Harper—

On Wednesday of last week I called to chat with Mrs. Margaret Daugherty who had just returned from a vacation in New York. Margaret had such a good time and was so excited about her trip that I sat spellbound for quite a while as she related to me some of the interesting places she visited, the people she met, and the food she enjoyed.

Margaret spent the first four days with Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Rutherford of New Rochelle, N. Y. Rutherford is a former resident of this community and a daughter of the late Mrs. Carrie Lytle.

Mrs. Daugherty then spent four days with Dr. and Mrs. Mallie C. Taylor of Wyandanch, L. I. Mrs. Taylor is the daughter of Mrs. Bessie Rutherford, niece of Mrs. Lester Stepp, Mr. and Mrs. Carnal Cumberback; she also talked with members of the Adam Clayton Powell family.

Margaret enjoyed the cute panquet of the Rutherfords. Each morning the little bird would greet her with "Good morning, baby," and would often fly over to drink from her early morning cup of coffee.

During this trip Mrs. Daugherty was overjoyed by receiving an antique cut glass dish that appears to be over 100 years old and was once owned by her great-grandmother. Mrs. Daugherty stated that something of interest was planned each day while there, and the hospitality shown by these people will never be forgotten.

One of the things that impressed me most while talking with Mrs. Daugherty was her being so appreciative to Miss Inez Larkin for whom she is employed, and Mrs. Edna Stockin, who cared for Miss Larkin and many other friends and relatives who made it possible for her to go on this wonderful trip.

JUNE BOONE HEADS GIRLS' AUXILIARY

The Intermediate Girls Auxiliary of the First Baptist church met Monday, Oct. 24, at the church. An election of officers was held and the following will serve for the coming year: president, June Boone; vice president, Becky Allred; secretary, Linda Beddingfield; treasurer, Barbara Boone; social committee, Becky Hudson, Cheryl Faulk, Ann Harris and Lynn Hemphill.

During the meeting Mrs. Glenn Wilson, Mrs. E. E. Miracle, and Miss Jo Stanley sang several songs.
