What's Goin' At Owen

BY ELOISE STYLES

Senior Rings
There has been a stir in the senior class this week; every senior has known that the class rings would come soon but no one knew the exact time of their arrival. Now the news is out. Everyone with his final payment will receive his ring on Monday. The seniors' fingers are already itching to wear the long-anticipated signets.

Owen Highlights
On Friday the first edition of Owen Highlights, the school newspaper, was sold. The eight-page newspaper carried all school news plus many feature articles. Pictures of Pattie Bird Talbot and Bobby Leonard, students of the month, were published in addition to features on both. This is the first time that photographs have printed in a regular paper. The staff of the newspaper consists of the following students: Eloise Styles, editor; Anita Luther, assistant editor; Margaret Mundy, art editor; Padhee Massey, assistant art editor; Sue Penley, business manager; Pat Lawrence, assistant business manager; Betty Fortune, club editor; Adelaide Clark, assistant club editor; Pirooska Soos, literary editor; Barbara Bradley, assistant literary editor; Carolyn Denson, society editor; Julia Smith, assistant society editor; Bobby White, sports editor; Bobby Leonard and Stanley Brown, assistant sport editors; Linda Kay Allen and Martha Raines, typists. The newspaper is under the sponsorship of the Beta club, from which all staff members are selected.

French Club
The Owen French club, "Toujours Heureuse," held its first meeting of the year at the Swannanoa Club House on Tuesday night. The purpose of the meeting was to initiate new members. All old members were dressed as beatniks; the new members portrayed unfortunate travelers, shipwrecked in the desert of the night. The old members beatniks really sent the new members "way out" before they were officially bringing them in to the club.

The officers of "Toujours Heureuse" after president, Bobby White; vice-president, Bobby Ball; secretary, Janice Higginbotham; treasurer, Padhee Massey; and reporter, Barbara Pound. Mrs. Mary Freeman sponsors the club.

New Teacher
Mr. Buck Lyda of Asheville is one of Owens new teachers. Mr. Lyda graduated from Wake Forest college where he majored in physical education. Besides teaching regular classes, he is one of the assistant football coaches. Mr. Lyda had this to say about Owen: "Owen High has a very friendly faculty and a wonderful principal. The students are friendly and cooperative."

From England
Friday morning Mrs. Joan Brooks of London, England, visited Owen. Mrs. Brooks, who had never been in an American high school before this, observed an English class, a typing class, a history class, a biology class, and the home economics department. She found the school very adequate. That night Mrs. Brooks, who had never seen a football game either, attended the Owen-Canton football game in the company of the William Styles family.

DON'T MISS IT!

You won't want to miss one of the most heartwarming broadcasts about one of the finest men in the 12th Congressional District. Listen to Radio Station WBMT, Black Mountain, on Monday, November 7, at 7:45 in the morning. It will make you feel good all over!

ALSO, don't forget: Rollman and his friends on WLOS-TV, Channel 13, Asheville, Monday evening, November 7, from 10:00 to 10:30. You will surely enjoy this. Our apologies to those of you who cannot get Channel 13, but you realize, naturally, that a TV program is too expensive to run on more than one station. (It costs $15.42 per minute, and 30 of Heinz Rollman's friends have paid for this program, each one paying for one minute.) Why not call a neighbor who can get Channel 13 and go there to watch this program?
