The Board of Directors of the Black Mountain-Swannanoa Red Cross chapter met at the West North Carolina Sanatorium on Wednesday to honor the 14 medical doctors in our community who were authorized to teach first aid. They were: Doctors C. D. Thomas, J. A. Robson, C. L. Henry, H. E. Wood, Yalcin Dincman, John R. Nelson, R. F. Bowling, Jesse P. Chapman, Hubert Clapp, O. R. Thompson, A. E. This was a luncheon meeting at 12:30 with Willard K. Weeks, chapter chairman, presiding. He discussed briefly the Red Cross policies on disaster services, emphasizing volunteers and utilizing local resources. He said the Red Cross represents all the people of the United States and extends aid without regard to racial, religious, political, or other affiliation. The Red Cross never
