WITHOUT A STAR—Long-range Court Reform which had plagued several legislatures in prior years was accomplished by the 1961 N. C. General Assembly...

Where-to-get-the-money had driven more than one legislator to drink since World War II. To avoid doing something about it of a concrete nature, one session reached back and dug out the $30-million-dollar reserve fund...

But with the Legislature which crippled home last week, there was no delay, no way to wait, no schemes left. They put on 73 million in new taxes and did in one blow what legislative sessions before them would not, or could not, do.

The 1961 legislators saw they had to do some Congressional Redistricting to make up for the huge population loss we suffered during those 50's, when we read so much earned stuff about our Great Expansion.

Postponement of shuffling around our representatives in the Legislature according to population shifts had been the order of the day since 1941, when it was first done. The House reshuffled; the Senate did not; but the '61 legislators did more on this problem than the 10 sessions, combined, before it.

Thus the 1961 Legislature was a BIG Legislature from every standpoint. While it, like those before it, probably left some little loose ends lying about, it did not leave one problem unsettled. It did not leave for those Legislatures coming after it huge riddles as its ancestors had done.

And the near-miraculous thing about it was the absence of a star performer. There wasn't a Gardner or a Bailey or a McDonald or a Cherry or a Hoey in the lot.

You could hardly find a star performer. If there was a future Governor in the group, it was not apparent. In fact, some of the star performers were veterans like Lindsay Warren of Beaufort, John McLaughlin of Iredell, Roger Kiser of Scotland County, and John Kerr, Jr., of Warren—men with their prominence behind them.

But there was teamwork aplenty. There was vigorous leadership from the Governor's office. There was determination from the Governor's office. There was insistence.

So, the will to work was in both houses this time; and the courageous leadership to lay out programs and to assume responsibility were the long suits of Terry Sanford.

STARS OF TOMORROW—Star performers in the 1963 session should be Cloyd Philpott, Clifton Blue, Joe Eagles, Lunsford Crew, Gordon Greenwood, John Jordan Irwin Bell, Albert Peel, Sam Burrow, John Henley, and Clyde H. Harris. NOT EXPECTED BACK—The 1961 session of the General Assembly lost three members and two from death. Max L. Childers of Gaston resigned to become a solicitor. F. L. Goble of Forsyth and Dr. J. M. Phelps of Washington County died suddenly of heart attacks.

SQUARE DANCERS—

Plans for the annual pancake supper are being made. It was announced by Roy Gravenor that club members are assisting in beautifying the grounds at the Youth Center.

The president informed the club that he had the privilege of being a guest at the Daniel Boone Scout camp for three days.

Four girls and four boys from the Operation Youth group, under the direction of Walter Cook, were presented in a series of intricate and well executed dance movements centering in the square dance pattern.

The following events, sponsored by the Get Acquainted club, to which all interested persons are invited: Every Wednesday afternoon at the Monte Vista at 1, duplicate bridge. Every Thursday night, 7:30, Monte Vista hotel, duplicate bridge; instruction by Max Woodcock.

SCOUT DAY CAMP—

(From Page 1) objects from things they find around them, get some experience in cooking out, make friends with Brownies from other neighborhoods and learn new songs and games. Brownies usually put on a fashion show or skit using costumes they have made from leaves, etc.

The Intermediate Scout has the opportunity to get ahead of the girls in her troop who do not take advantage of day camp for she will have the opportunity to pass some outdoor badges that are not so easy to pass at Scout meetings, such as campcraft, outdoor cook rambler, tree, insect, reptile, and amphibian, just to mention a few.

Several Senior Scouts from our area are going to serve as program aides and have already spent a day at the camp site in preparation for the fun and adventure to come. They are Ann Harris, Pat Smith, and Dede Stealy.

There is still time to register for the day camp. Just send your registration card with your $2.50 fee to the Girl Scout Office, 610 City Building, Asheville, N. C. If you have lost your cards, contact your Girl Scout leader or call 68-6-3854. When you register be sure to indicate which of the two weeks you wish to attend or if you would like to come both weeks. The program will be varied enough so that there will be new things to learn each week. As soon as all the registrations are in, car pools will be formed to transport the Black Mountain and Swannanoa girls to the camp site. Hope to see many of you Brownies and especially you Intermediates at camp.

MONTREAT

Miss Julia Stokes

Last week I wrote in the paper that Dr. Little Grier went to Anderson, S. C. where she was entertained by some former China Missionaries at a birthday party to celebrate her 92 birthday. Someone thought I must be wrong so I wrote her 82 birthday. However, it was her 92 birthday and she went to Anderson where she was entertained at a birthday party. She was accompanied by her two daughters, Miss Lucy Grier and Mrs. Samuel Woods. However, it has been done before, for Mrs. Crosby Adams went to give a recital and she gave a recital after that in Montreat. Mrs. H. I. Woodhouse will be 100 on December 24 and she is a regular attendant at the morning church services. Every summer for many years we have had a visitor from Davidson who was 101 years old this June 10. Last year he was here and stayed part of the time at the William Black Home on North Carolina Terrace and at the Dougherty Inn, Black Mountain. He attended the morning church services in Anderson Auditorium on Sunday mornings last summer. We hope he will be coming over during the Conference season this year. He is a retired Presbyterian preacher from Virginia. He learned to write on the typewriter after he was 90 in order to write to his grandchildren and great grandchildren. Many interesting people come to Montreat every year.

The Summer School for Leaders is meeting in Montreat. The First School is June 24-30 and the Second School—July 1-7. W. W. Ramsey, Richmond, Va., is the Director, Miss Elsie Merriam is Administrator of the School. The preachers for the Sunday services, July 2 in Anderson Auditorium are: Dr. Dwight Moody Chalmers as the preacher for the 11 A. M. service and James A. Coswell for the 8 p. m. service in Anderson. Dr. Chalmers is Book Editor for the Presbyterian. He was educated in Davidson College, Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va.

Dr. James A. Cogswell a missionary to Japan. A graduate of Southwestern, Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. is preaching at the Assistant Professor Davidson College. He will preach Sunday at 8 p. m.

The Sunday service was held in Anderson Auditorium at 11 A. M. Sunday with Dr. Wade P. Hulett as preacher. His sermon was "One Who Calls" based on John 21:1-4. The summer chorus was present for the church service. The offertory anthem—"Now Let Us All Praise God and Sing." Young. This was very beautiful. Alan Grier is chair director or Many of the Montreat College students, some former students and some of the residence of Montreat and Black Mountain are in the chorus.

Many of the regular summer residents and many who come every summer have arrived. It is always good to greet old friends. Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Betheune and small daughter, Anna Elizabeth of Victoria, Va. are in the Redhead cottage on Virginia Road for a few weeks.

Dr. Hugh Farrior has returned from Africa where he is a medical missionary in the Congo. He is spending some time with his parents Rev. and Mrs. S. C. Farrior on Assembly Drive, and has invited his wife and small daughter who have been in this country for the last year.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Hopper are spending this week in Rock Hill as guests of Miss Lottie Barron and Mr. Barron. Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Armistead and Miss Mary Blanton Armistead of Florida are in the Grier apartment for the summer. They are enjoying seeing old friends. Mary Blanton is a student in Florida State University.

Col. and Mrs. Benjamin Murph have returned to their home on Virginia Road after a years travel in Europe and England. They had many interesting experiences there.

Miss Jeem and Miss Sarcotte Dupuy are in the McColl cottage for a month.

Mrs. Walter Styles and children of Florida are in their cottage on Assembly Lane for the summer. Dr. Styles is here for a short stay and will return later in the summer.

Mrs. C. W. Legerton and a few friends are spending a few weeks in the Legerton cottage on Alabama Terrace.

Mrs. W. A. Ross will be in her cottage on Alabama Terrace for the summer. She will have with her Mrs. George Hudson and Miss Elizabeth Hudson, former residents of Montreat.

George Norris of Danville, Va. is in his cottage on Virginia Road for the summer. He will be joined soon by his daughter, and family of Florida.

Mrs. Mellinger Henry and Miss Julia Stokes received word of the death of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles A. Stokes in the Government Hospital in Columbus, Ga. She was buried beside her late husband, Lt. Col. Charles A. Stokes in Arlington National Cemetery.

Taylor Bill—(From Page 1) 170 miles southwest into the Atlanta, Ga., area. In a hearing on the bill last Thursday, Taylor explained to the committee members that the region through which the extended scenic road would pass is "within or two days travel of 60% of the population of the United States."

"The Western North Carolina area through which this extension would pass is comparable to the outstanding scenic wonder of the Blue Ridge mountains and the Great Blacks, now accessible along completed sections of the Blue Ridge Parkway," Taylor declared.

Congressman Phil M. Landrum of Georgia, through whose district the extended parkway would also pass, praised Rep. Taylor for introducing the extension bill and pledged to support the measure "100 per cent."

Taylor presented resolutions of the North Carolina National Parkway and Forest Development Commission, Western North Carolina Associated Communities, Western North Carolina Planning Commission, North Carolina Board of Conservation and Development, and from many chambers of commerce in the area endorsing and supporting the bill.

Look Who's Here!

Mr. and Mrs. Miller H. Brackett of Black Mountain are parents of a son born June 25 in St. Joseph's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Melton of route 1, have a daughter born June 23, in St. Joseph's hospital.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Douglas Harwood of 418 1/2 Vance Ave., a daughter June 18, in St. Joseph's hospital.

Mrs. E. Austin Gives Program

The Home Demonstration club met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Lee H. Moore at Christmont.

The president, Mrs. J. Guthrie, was back after a two months' tour of Arizona and Florida. She gave a report of her stay in Arizona in which she stated her attraction to the blooming cactus there. Also she was greatly impressed by the fact that the Chinese, Mexican, colored, and white children all attended the same school and did it gracefully and peacefully.

Mrs. Earnest Austin gave the program, demonstrating the making of milk custard as one means of making use of more milk in the family diet.

The hostess served ice cream, cake, and a cold drink. A social hour was enjoyed by the 11 members and two guests present.

Mrs. Fitzgerald Dies Following Long Illness

Mrs. Fannie F. Fitzgerald, a well loved citizen of Black Mountain, died Sunday, June 25 in a Henderson county hospital following a long illness. She was a native of Orlando, Fla., and a resident of Black Mountain for the past 37 years.

Mrs. Fitzgerald was chosen to the Business and Professional Woman's club as being the "Woman of the Year" several years ago.

She had served for many years as dietician at Assembly Inn at Montreat prior to her retirement several years ago. She owned and operated Fleetwood apartments in Black Mountain and was a member of the Black Mountain Presbyterian church.

Surviving are several nieces and nephews, including Mrs. Frank Pounds of Orlando, Fla. Services were held at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday in the chapel of Harrison Funeral home. Dr. T. A. Spence of Montreat officiated. Burial was in Mountain View Memorial park.

SHOPE CREEK

By Mrs. Thelma Buckner (For June 22)

We were sorry to learn of the accident of Roger Fuller, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Lail Fuller. He was struck by a passing motorist while attending Bible School at Oteen and was very seriously hurt. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Our profound sympathy to the families of Mrs. Willie Joyner, who died on June 14, and of Mr. John Moran, who died on June 14. Mrs. Ocie Gregg, who returned to St. Joseph's hospital for a short period, has been released and at last report was with her son, Homer Bailey and family of Fairview.

Sherry Gregg was three years old June 17. She celebrated with a trip to the Rec. Park.

Robin Gregg has Chicken Pox.

W. M. S. of Berea Baptist met Wednesday evening at the church for their monthly meeting. Six were present.

I am expecting to harvest another crop of beans from the old peach tree again this summer. The vines are now growing nicely.

Miss Linda Weatherford of Asheville, and Jesse Lee Gragg of Shope Creek were united in marriage Saturday June 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shope, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Gregg and Robin spent last week end at Adger Lake in Polk County camping and fishing. They caught a few fish and killed a big copperhead.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Nichols and Wayne of Swannanoa were recent Sunday dinner guests of the Troy Gregg family of Upper Shope Creek.

I am grateful for the kind remarks about my poem, especially to you, Mr. Byrd, being a man of "creative imagination." It was kind of you to encourage me to try again.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Moody and Jerry motored out to Arden Sunday and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Buckner.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pyatt and daughters Sondra, Eugene, and Paulette, and Jennie Maud of Houston, Texas, are visiting relatives here and in Old Fort for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Gregg and children dined at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ingle, Jr., of Hiwassee Ave., Black Mountain on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Alfred Tyson, Jr., assisted by her daughter Mrs. Murphy Glass, entertained with a coffee Saturday morning, June 24 at the Tyson home on New Bern avenue for Miss Elizabeth (Buzzie) Brown, bride-elect of Paul S. Rockwell.

The hostesses presented the honoree with a gift. Several close friends and members of Miss Brown's family called during the coffee hour.

Bride-To-Be Is Feted At Lovely Tea

Miss Dianne Rockett, bride elect of Bobby James Nichols of Old Fort, whose marriage was solemnized Saturday in Old Fort, was honored with a tea before the wedding at the home of her Aunt, Mrs. John L. Pharr in Conover.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Pharr, Mrs. John Rockett of Alexandria, Va., and Newton.

A color note of green and white was carried out in the floral arrangement of white mixed flowers among ivy and fern. The table was covered with a white lace and cut-work cloth and was flecked with ivy leaves.

Refreshments were served to about 25 guests who called. Married Saturday

Miss Dianne Rockett and Bobby James Nichols were married Saturday evening June 24th, in a beautiful but quiet ceremony performed by the Rev. J. Groves Robinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harvey J. Rockett. She was given in marriage by her uncle, John L. Pharr of Conover.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Russell Nichols, formerly of Old Fort, now of Toledo, Ohio.

The bride wore a dress of pea de soie with lace appliques. Her veil was attached to a coronet and she carried a white rose. Her bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Brown of Troutman was the bride's maid of honor and her bridesmaids

Guests Here From Texas See Sights

Robert L. York, farm superintendent at the Presbyterian Home for Children, and guests here had a recent visit from Dr. Thomas L. York and family of Corpus Christi, Texas. Dr. and Mrs. York were here for 10 days, but the children, Tommy, Susan, and Chris, spent three weeks with their grandparents. While they were here they enjoyed trips to the Parkway, Gatlinburg, Cherokee—where they were fascinated with real live Indians—and the Smokies, where probably the most exciting event of the trip was seeing four bears "not in cages." They loved the beautiful scenery and cool weather. Another highlight of their stay was the visit to "Ghost Town" at Maggie Valley.

Dr. York, who is a general practitioner and surgeon, was graduated from the University of North Carolina, where he had two years of pre-med. He received his M.D. at the University of Maryland, Baltimore, did his internship at Galveston, Tex., and from there went to Memphis, Tenn., for residency. He has been practicing at Corpus Christi for eight years and has recently built and established his own clinic there.

Mrs. York is the former Miss Alice Flory of Columbia, S. C. She and Dr. York met when both were students at U.N.C.

Council of Evangelism At Blue Ridge

A prominent Methodist theologian will deliver the daily sermons June 30-July 5 at Blue Ridge assembly during the annual meeting of the Council of Evangelism of the Methodist Church.

He is the Rev. Don W. Holtzer, president of Saint Paul School of Theology Methodist, formerly National Methodist Theological seminary, Kansas City, Mo.

The opening keynote address at the meeting will be given by the Rev. George A. Fallon, Lakewood, Ohio, president of the council.

The council promotes the church's evangelistic program as an auxiliary of the Methodist General Board of Evangelism.

Secretaries of evangelism for Methodist annual conferences and districts will attend the meeting to discuss how the church can evangelize more effectively.

The Rev. Richard H. Robinson, Houston, will be in charge of the worship in song. He is executive secretary of the board of education of the Texas Methodist Conference of the Central (Negro) jurisdiction.

Other speakers will be the Rev. Emerson S. Colaw, pastor of First Methodist church, Elmhurst, Ill.; the Rev. Lynn Radcliffe, pastor of Hyde Park Methodist church, Cincinnati; the Rev. Edgar A. Potts, superintendent of the Lynchburg Methodist district in the Virginia conference; the Rev. Cecil Culver, superintendent of the Pine Bluff Methodist district in the Little Rock conference.

Miss Betty Marston is vacationing with her father Kermit Marston for a month. Miss Marston has just returned from Germany where she spent two years. She plans to teach in Japan next year, leaving the states by early fall.

Mrs. A. B. Shiflet spent the week end at her home on the Sugar Hill Rd. in Old Fort. She is attending Summer School at Appalachian College at Boone.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson and daughter Sherry left last Friday for Daytona Beach, Fla. where they will spend a week or ten days.
