Thomas P. Inabinett (L) and C. A. Weesner will be leaders of study groups at Christmount Christian assembly July 24-28. Both men are members of the United Society, an international board which serves the majority of the 8,000 Disciple churches in the U. S. and Canada and their missions in 11 other countries.

Audio-Visual Conference At Christmount
 The Southeastern Audio-Visual conference will be held at Christmount Christian Assembly, Black Mountain, July 24-28, 1961. This conference, held formerly in 1958 and 1960, will be sponsored cooperatively this year with the United Church of Christ and the Church of the Brethren. This conference, like the Toronto workshop, will seek to develop regional counselors in audio-visual utilization. However, the program also will be directed toward local church representatives in helping them develop adequate understanding of audio-visual communication and the proper use of this material.

- Your Church Needs YOU! -

YOU'VE often heard the age-old expression, "As the twig is bent, the tree's inclined." No more truthful sentence was ever uttered. It is a proven fact that an individual's character and outlook on life as a whole is formed during the early years of life.

NO WELL thinking parents will intentionally let their children be led astray by the evil forces at work in the world today. We urge you, the parents of these youngsters, not to neglect their spiritual lives. Attend Sunday School and Church this Sunday and every Sunday and take them along with you.
