Reunion plans are under way! Again for the fourth consecutive year the staff is planning a reunion for Tampa, Fla., during Christmas holidays.

The program this year will include the annual reunion banquet at Ft. Harrison hotel, Clearwater; day tours to Cypress Gardens and Weeki Wachee Springs; morning meditations and evening campfires by a lakeside. Dates for this year's gathering are Dec. 27-30. Theme of the reunion is "Ye Are The Light."

Program leaders have already been announced, including: Nancy Blevins, special activities director; Bobby Germany, music director; John Miller, drama director; L. C. Easterling, morning meditation director; Jane Brook, campfire director; Larry Roof, master of ceremonies; Jane Brough, dining hall hostess; Carl Hoover and Steve Shattuck, food service directors; and Larita Umphlett, pianist. All of these are summer staffers now.

Serving on the directing committee are Avary Bales, Atlanta; Sharon Bowden, St. Augustine; Bruce Mann, Valdosta, Ga.; Pat McGlone, Tampa; and myself.

We are lining up as much of the program and assigning as much responsibility as possible this summer. We think this will be the best reunion yet.

This 'n That
 Christmas is really being spotlighted now among staffers. This is the traditional "Christmas in July" week. However, the annual staff Christmas banquet will not be held until next Wednesday (Aug. 2) because the Sunday School Board is meeting at Ridgcrest Wednesday-Friday of this week.

This leads me to say a big welcome to them, too, for their semi-annual meeting. I'm especially glad they've come to Ridgcrest for it gives me opportunity to see all my winter-time friends, and my chiefs during those months—Dr. Harold E. Ingraham and Mrs. Agnes G. Ford, service division director and press representative, respectively.

If you appreciate good music let me suggest by all means that you hear the staff musical Sunday afternoon in the auditorium at 3 o'clock. Miss Bobby Germany, staff music director, will be leading. In my opinion, they're about the greatest.

Conference Capsule
 Second Sunday School Conference speaker opening today (Thursday) is Dr. C. E. Aulrey, director of the Division of Evangelism, Home Mission Board, Dallas, Tex.

Another Texan, Dr. Kyle M. Yates, professor of religion at Baylor University, Waco, will be Bible Hour speaker. William H. Souther, associate professor of church administration at New Orleans (La.) Baptist Theological Seminary, will direct the music.

Last Straw
 We made a survey of the staff last week and found, among other statistics, that Mississippi and Tennessee lead all the other states in number of staffers with 50 each. North Carolina is way down in fifth place (after South Carolina and Florida) with 42 staffers.

Of the 141 colleges represented on the 1961 summer staff, Carson-Newman, in Jefferson City, Tenn., stands out with 14 staffers who are students there. There are 104 on the staff who have not yet entered college.

Finally, there are 243 single girls and 136 single boys on the staff this summer. My question is—"Why haven't I found my 1.8 girls yet?"

- Your Church Needs YOU! -

NOW is the time for the youth of the nation and the universe to arrive at a decision on what highway they propose to travel. One will lead to usefulness and high purpose accomplished. The other way will take you straight to degradation. Today is the day of days to make your choice. Read your Bible daily, study its spiritual messages, and through it you will learn that every boy and girl, and every man and woman, are divinely protected, but they must know that, within their human consciousness, before they garner the fruitage of a divinely protected experience. Do not muddle through things. Make the Bible, through its wisdom, the way of life. You will learn great truths that will be more precious to you as the years go by, than any pearls that divers find.
