Many of our hearts were saddened upon learning of the recent death of one of our former residents, Vernon Stepp of Charlotte. Vernon was 18 years of age and had lived in Black Mountain most of his life. He was the son of Finley W. Stepp and the late Mrs. Vetta Stepp.

Many of you will recall that Vernon started his Christian life at an early age. When he became a member of the Mills Chapel church. He was an active member of the Y. M. C. A. and a student of the Carver Elementary school, serving as a Boy Scout and Junior Deputy.

In Charlotte he attended the West Charlotte Senior High school and was an honor student. He was also a Sunday school scholar at the Pleasant Hill Baptist church, and one of the towns outstanding young citizens.

We were
