Junior Women Donate $100 To Children's Home In Greensboro. The Junior Woman's Club met Tuesday night, Aug. 14, at the home of Mrs. Marcus Begley. Members voted during the business meeting to donate $100 again this year to the Children's Home in Greensboro. This home is sponsored by the North Carolina Junior Woman's clubs. A fall fashion show will be held in September in order to raise money for this worthy cause.

Chamber Of Commerce '51 Membership Drive Will Be Conducted Wednesday. The annual C of C membership drive will be conducted between 9 and 10 A.M. Aug. 22, the directors have announced. H. B. Sabiston is chairman of the membership committee composed of all directors and others interested in the promotion and welfare of the town of Black Mountain. From all sides come reports of increased business this season. Much of this increase, C of C officials believe, is the result of the large and intensive advertising campaign which has been conducted this spring and summer in more than 100 newspapers in the South.
