Will The Yanks See "Red"?
At the risk of having the boom lowered on us by some irate New York Yankee fans, we'll stick our elongated neck out and say that not only will the Cincinnati Reds dispose of the great Whitey Ford in Wednesday's game (which will already have been played when this is read) but will go on to take the world series in six, possibly seven games.

So much has been said about the devastating Yankee power that most have forgotten that the Reds are also loaded with fence-busters. With an excellent pitching staff to back up this power along with a fine defensive combination, we can't help but believe the "Bombers" from the Bronx have a big surprise in store.

However the fall classic ends it should be a great spectacle to watch.

Just in case we have to eat crow as a result of our "fearless forecast" we'd like a good recipe if anyone knows one.

Woodman of the World
The W.O.W. year which ended in August saw 11 boys and 11 girls receive awards for perfect attendance. The awards were in the form of sterling silver rings with W. O. Boys who were awarded rings were: Gerald Warlick, Terry Ramsey, Michael McClure, Toby Patton, Hoy Pruitt, Terry McClure, Teddy Smith, Vincent Green, Ray Ramsey, Michael Warlick and Robert Moore.

The Junior Girls Auxiliary met at the church Tuesday, Sept. 26, with 15 members present. They were joined by the Intermediate group and their leader, Miss Elaine Fox to hear an inspiring and informative talk from Mrs. Josephine Mumpower Stevens, who with her husband serve as missionaries to South Africa. She told of their work in that area, of the way of life there and the acute needs of those people, especially that of to know about God.

It is hoped by the G. A. leaders that more girls, especially the older ones, will attend and take part in the meetings. This type of work can be very helpful to any young girl.
