Committee Chairmen installed are: welfare committee, Mrs. Barbara Harris; social, Miss Ugeal Taylor; Membership, Mrs. Irene Brackett, call, Mrs. Cornelia Allen.

The formation of this organization came about through the efforts of Mrs. Christine White, whose sincere interest and concern for the continued welfare of the Black Mountain Volunteer Fire department, prompted her to contact a group of local women and approach them with the idea of forming a Ladies' auxiliary. The response was most gratifying and the ladies took no time in getting behind the movement.

The purpose of the auxiliary is to lend assistance to the members of the Fire department wherever and whenever possible and to cooperate mutually with the firemen in their work and social function.

All local women interested in the Fire department are urged to attend the next meeting which will be held on Feb. 2nd, at 7:30 p.m. in the Fire department headquarters. For further information, contact Mrs. Christine White, No. 9-7355.

AUXILIARY—

ing Committees were also installed at this meeting. The following were elected to office: president, Mrs. Christine White; vice-president, Mrs. Frances Harris; secretary, Mrs. Kay Stevens; treasurer, Mrs. Sally Dickens; chaplain, Mrs. Betty Wheelon; sgt.-at-arms, Mrs. JoAnne Ragan; historian, Mrs. Edith Atkins.

Education Is Necessary In Today's Army

Today's age of science and technology has generated demands for an increasingly educated citizenry. Nowhere has this role been more insistent than in the role of today's modern Soldier. For the quality of an Army is largely determined by the quality of its people.

The advent of complex machinery of war has greatly increased the need for better educated, more skilled Soldiers than ever before.

Given the raw material of patriotic citizens, their minds rooted in our culture, their bodies strong from the goodness of our land, the United States Army creates a fabric of soldiery to give life to our ideals and National goals.

Each task, each skill, each accomplishment, forges a link in the mailed coat and clenched fist of the combat arms.

To keep pace with the need, the United States Army is constantly searching for young men and women who show definite promise of becoming competent, effective Soldiers. It offers each Soldier opportunities to develop to the highest degree those aptitudes and skills which will contribute to the improvement of themselves and of the Army's effectiveness.

Quality has become synonymous with Soldier. The modern Soldier is a law-abiding, serious-minded, responsible individual.

With all the opportunities to forge a career and better themselves in the modern Army, the basic motivation of our Regular Soldiers is still patriotism—the urge to render useful, honorable service to their Nation.

Regular Army careers are available to all young men and women who can qualify. See your Army Recruiter at the local post office any Wednesday.

—The South's pulp and paper industry in 1960 provided employment for more than 86,000 persons who received a payroll totaling $463 million.

Diplomas Given Leaders For Study Course

A basic leadership course, taken by class study and requiring an equivalent of 7½ hours, was recently held at First Baptist Church for all WMS members, officers, chairmen and committee members. Mrs. W. C. Howell, president of WMU, was teacher for the group, and informatively taught by a concise outline of the course and with a series of posters.

WMS Leadership Cards were issued upon completion of the course and were presented in a ceremony following the monthly business meeting on Tuesday night, Jan. 2. Mrs. Horace Chasteen, attired in cap and gown, assisted the pastor, Rev. A. T. Usher, in awarding diplomas to the following ladies: Mrs. Cecil Nanney, Mrs. A. T. Usher, Mrs. Virgil Mitchell, Mrs. Hagan Wood, Mrs. Horace Chasteen, Mrs. Carolyn Kyles, Mrs. Marshall Mott, Mrs. T. J. Fussell, Mrs. G. A. Wall, Mrs. Irvin Page, Mrs. A. G. Callison, Mrs. W. C. Howell, Mrs. Harry Gasperson, and Mrs. W. S. Holcombe.
