HISTORY TEN YEARS AGO

CHRISTIAN ASSEMBLY SITE PAID FOR, PLANNED DEVELOPMENT STARTED—The most important news at the meeting of Southern Christian Assembly Directors last Friday was that payment for the site of 600 acres near Black Mountain had been completed. While assets for this purpose had been sufficient in amount for some time, all that was left had been paid when the site was no longer potentially but now actually the property of the churches in the seven states that cooperate in the assembly.

MONTREAT COTTAGE DESTROYED BY FIRE—The Leslie Ross cottage, on Kentucky circle, Montreat, owned by Miss Elizabeth Ross and her brother, Concord, N. C. was completely destroyed by fire shortly after 6 a. m. Wednesday. The cottage was insured.

MR. BLACK MOUNTAIN FOR 1951—W. Dean Willis, town clerk, is now the holder of another title, "Young Man of the Year", an honor conferred on him at the anniversary banquet of the Black Mountain Junior Chamber of Commerce last Thursday evening. In the opinion of the judges he graded highest among the 8 nominees according to the six qualifying standards set by the U. S. Jr. C. of C.

CONTRACT FOR PAVING HIGHWAY 9 TO BAT CAVE WILL BE LET SOON—The engineers' survey of N. C. highway no. 9 has been completed from the end of the present pavement to Bat Cave, according to L. Dale Thrash, highway commissioner for the 10th district. He expects that the paving contract will be let in February, inasmuch as the authorities are now ready to advertise the bids.

RICHARD MORROW SERVING ABOARD NUCLEAR AIRCRAFT

Richard W. Morrow, senior chief interior communications electrician, USN, son of Mr. Wade Morrow of Black Mountain is serving aboard the world's first nuclear-powered aircraft carrier the USS Enterprise, currently undergoing a "shakedown" cruise in the Caribbean. Commissioned last November, the 85,000-ton super-carrier is the most tactically flexible carrier in the world, able to roam the oceans at high speeds for extended periods and launching the latest jet aircraft to attack all types of targets simultaneously.

Veterans News

Information concerning benefits administered by the Veterans Administration may be obtained much more quickly by writing or visiting the Winston-Salem VA Regional Office, rather than writing VA Central Office, Washington, D. C.

Specific requests for information concerning individual cases cannot be handled in Washington, J. D. DeRamus, Manager, Winston-Salem Regional Office, pointed out. These must be supplied by the office where the records, files and case folders pertaining to the individual veteran are maintained.

All records of this type are kept in VA Regional Offices, and inquires about particular problems must be referred to the Regional Office having jurisdiction over the records of the veteran concerned.

When veterans write their VA Regional Office for information, they should include their full name, complete address, birthdate and claim number (C Number), if they have one. This will identify the veteran and assist the VA in locating promptly papers and records sometimes needed in supplying answers to queries.

and human beings most of all. Day of worship
Now our Lord's use of the Sabbath gives us the Christian life. He knew the Fourth Commandment; but he did not suppose that "rest" meant doing literally nothing. Certainly his Sabbaths were extremely busy; you might say he worked overtime on that day. For one thing it was then as now the day set apart for worship. It was His custom to attend the synagogue on the Sabbath day. He could have preached better sermons than he heard there, but he went all the same. Christians do not always appreciate enough what it means to be able to worship in freedom and peace. We are throwing away one of God's best gifts when we let a Lord's Day drift by without joining other Christians at worship, if we are able to go at all. The first thing communists do when they take over a country, such as China or East Germany, is to make it impossible for Christians there, or extremely difficult, to worship in church. If you can get a whole generation growing up without leisure for religion, you have driven religion underground, and it will take a long time to return. So the Lord's Day is a prime target of communism.

Day of doing good
The Pharisees of Jesus' time were very strict about the Sabbath day. Jesus set as much store by it as they, but in a different way. Their big question was: What is WRONG to do on the Sabbath? Jesus' question was: What is RIGHT to do? When Jesus saw any one in need of help that He could give, He never looked at the calendar first to make sure what day it was. It is lawful to do good on the Sabbath, He said. Don't most of us have in the back of our minds some one thing, at least, some kind and helpful act, which we could do if we only had time? Well, the Lord's Day is the time. To come to that blessed day, the "Day of rest and gladness," wondering whether we ought to do this or that, worrying about what we are supposed to do or not to do, is frustrating. But to come to the day with the question: What good can I be, what good can I do to others, on this day when we have a step to a happy day. This day was made for man, as Jesus said. For his body, his mind, his soul, whatever makes ourselves, and others, the nearest us, better persons, is sure it is holy. It is a different day, a day of rest, a day of rest, a day of rest, a day of rest. Machines need rest, plants and animals need it.

The WORLD'S Best Hope . . .

TIME WILL PROVE that it is not a mere accident that the statue of liberty is in New York harbor, and that the Golden Gate is on the Western coast.

The world is in a tail spin because of lack of religion. We have allusions to religion in the declaration of Independence and in the Constitution, but it is not enough to have written and spoken words about religion; religion must be lived.

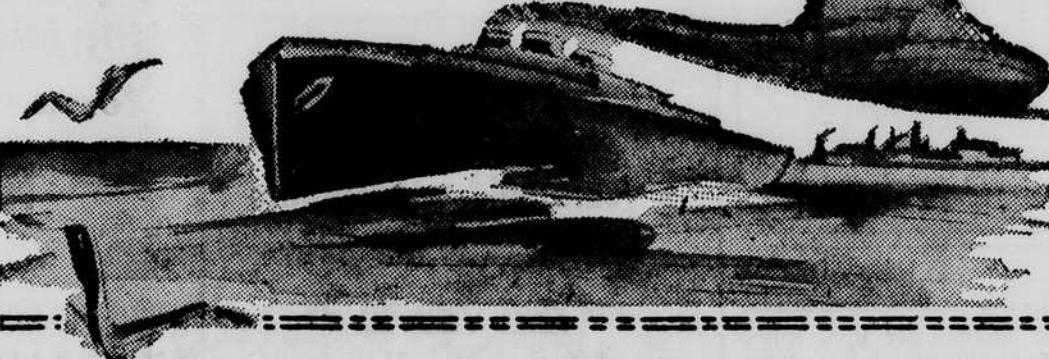

Washington At Valley Forge . . .

Washington, in his darkest hour at Valley Forge, placed his trust in Divine Providence.

At the foot of every page in the annals of Nations, may be written "GOD REIGNS."

All the water in the seven seas cannot sink a ship unless it enters the ship. Likewise all the evil in the world cannot do any harm unless they permit it to enter their human consciousness.

A Verse for Today . . .

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases.—Ps. 103: 2, 3.
